FOREWORD

"Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable--if anything is excellent or praiseworthy-- think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me-- put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you." Philippians 4:8-9

(A comment from Paul, in prison, encouraging excellence in ministry through his example.)

TO: ALL EMPLOYEES

This Personnel Policy Manual is issued to faculty and staff employees of Immanuel Lutheran Church and School and its controlled or affiliated entities (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Immanuel Lutheran Church” or the “ILCS”). It provides general information about Immanuel Lutheran Church and School employment practices, including the benefits provided to you and conduct expected from you as a faculty/staff member. It is your responsibility to become familiar with the information in this Manual. This Manual does not contain every policy or employment practice of the ILCS and the descriptions contained herein are only summaries. If you have questions or want more detail on a particular practice or benefit, please contact the Human Resources Coordinator. Aside from Immanuel’s Constitution and Bylaws, this Manual supersedes all other communications, handbooks, memoranda and notices you may have received regarding the topics covered herein. Changes to the Personnel Policy Manual can be ratified only by the Voters Assembly via a majority vote. If changes are made, you will be informed as soon as practical.

Please read this Manual carefully. Although this Manual does not constitute a contract or agreement of employment, we hope it will provide guidance and answer your questions. Please talk with the Senior Pastor, Principal, Human Resources Coordinator, or any member of the Board of Directors if there are any questions or if additional information is needed.

May God bless you in all you do. Sincerely,

THE CONGREGATION OF IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 WELCOME!

Welcome to Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church – Palatine, Illinois (“Immanuel” or “Immanuel Lutheran Church and School,” or “ILCS”)! We consider you to be a gift from God and look forward to working with you as a member of our ministry team. The gifts and talents which you bring to your position are most appreciated. We are committed to working together with you in service to our Lord through this ministry.

As an employee of Immanuel, you represent this ministry in both your work life and private life. Our hope is that you would always be sensitive to how others may see you as you live out your daily life. We encourage you to strive toward living a life that is an example to others of your relationship with God and your belief in Immanuel's Mission Statement.

We pray that you will look to your Lord daily as you go about your work in a way that is suggested in this portion of a prayer from “The Lutheran Book of Prayer.”

"Grant that I may day by day put forth efforts which are pleasing to Thee, helpful to my fellow men, and sufficient to provide for my daily needs. Keep me mindful that my service must be done not merely to men but to Thee. Help me to remember that in all things, my sufficiency is of Thee and that whatever I do is to be done to Thy glory. Give me joy in my labor; sincerity in my service, and unselfishness in all my striving. Help me to be faithful in all things, for the sake of Him who died for me." Amen

1.2 INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

The following pages contain a general overview of procedures and policies established by the Immanuel congregation for its employees, as well as an explanation of benefits provided with this employment. Immanuel wants its employees to feel that, although there are policies and procedures to follow, employees will also sense participation in the servant role to the Immanuel community. Immanuel hopes its employees will find joy in their work and friendship among co-workers.

It is important that employees read, understand and become familiar with this Personnel Policy Manual and comply with the standards which have been established. Please talk with the Senior Pastor, Principal, Human Resources Coordinator or any member of the Board of Directors if there are any questions or if additional information is needed.

It is obviously not possible to anticipate every situation that may arise in the workplace or to provide information that answers every possible question. As a result, Immanuel Lutheran Church and School reserves the right to modify, supplement, rescind or revise any policy, benefit or provision from time to time, with or without notice, as it deems necessary or appropriate. All modifications, deletions and additions must be approved by the Board of Directors and the Voters Assembly of Immanuel Lutheran Church. Immanuel will comply with all applicable local, State and Federal laws.

Further, where this Handbook lists our statutory obligations as an employer (for example, wage payment issues, or statutory leaves) it is our intent merely to recite those statutory obligations, if any, as they may apply to us. In such cases, it is not our intent to create, nor do we create, new or additional obligations where none may exist by statute.

The Personnel Policy Manual is meant to comply with all of the articles of Immanuel's Constitution and Bylaws. Therefore, the said Constitution and Bylaws shall have precedence over any conflicting items contained in this Personnel Policy Manual or those set forth in the terms of an employee's call or contract.

1.3 CHURCH MISSION AND VISION STATEMENTS

1.3.1 CHURCH MISSION STATEMENT

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28: 19-20

1.3.2 CHURCH VISION STATEMENT

Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Immanuel will strive to:

- Provide a variety of excellent worship services so people will worship more;
- Provide excellent education so adults and youths will learn more;
- Equip people to spread the Good News so people will reach out more in fellowship and caring; and
- Inspire people to be like Christ so they will serve more in growing God's Kingdom.

1.4 SCHOOL MISSION AND VISION STATEMENTS

1.4.1 SCHOOL MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Immanuel Lutheran School is to partner with parents to prepare their children for Christian learning and service, while pursuing a rigorous academic program in a disciplined, nurturing environment.

1.4.2 SCHOOL VISION STATEMENT

The vision of Immanuel Lutheran School is to nurture the child spiritually and academically, equipping each child to be a responsible, effective citizen for life.

2. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

2.1 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Immanuel Lutheran Church and School does not discriminate in hiring or employment on the basis of actual or perceived race (including traits associated with race, including hair texture and protective hairstyles such as braids, locks, and twists), color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, pregnancy, marital status, disability (including association with a person with a disability), military status, unfavorable discharge from military service, order of protection status, genetic information status, work authorization status, or other legally protected status required by law. Because Immanuel is an entity of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (“LCMS” or “Synod”), Immanuel Lutheran Church and School, in compliance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, reserves the right to give preference in employment to persons based on religion.

Because Immanuel is a church body with a Christian school, and is a member congregation of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, certain positions demand extensive understanding of and commitment to the doctrinal view of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. For such positions, it is necessary for Immanuel to seek out individuals with specific religious training and/or synodical recognition. In addition to the extent allowed by State Law for all positions, Immanuel may give preference in hiring on the basis of religion, including persons who are members in good standing of a Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod congregation.

The position of Pastor at Immanuel Lutheran Church is required to be held by ordained ministers of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Based on religious belief, only males are ordained ministers in The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

As an equal employment opportunity employer, we commit ourselves to a positive work environment for all employees, free from inappropriate and hostile conduct. We will not tolerate any harassment or other action that interferes with this equal employment objective. In addition, if you feel there have been other actions in violation of this equal employment opportunity policy, you are strongly encouraged to use our Open Door Policy. To report harassment or other discrimination, you may also:

- Call the Illinois Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Helpline at 1-877-236-7703 to talk to someone about your concerns; and
- Contact the Illinois Department of Human Rights (IDHR) or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) to file a charge:

2.2 ANTI-RETALIATION

We prohibit any form of retaliation against you or any employee who in good faith makes a complaint, raises a concern, or assists in an investigation about a possible violation of our Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, Sexual Harassment and Harassment Policy, other laws, or our standards of conduct. We want you to feel comfortable and to speak up without fear of reprisal when you see, hear, or suspect illegal or unethical conduct.

You will not be terminated, threatened, or retaliated against because you make a good faith complaint about any issue outlined above, or assist in any investigation of such matters. We prohibit retaliation even if complaints are later determined to be unsupported.

If you believe you have been retaliated against, or that any other violation of this policy has occurred, or if you have questions concerning this policy, we encourage you to use our Open Door Policy. We will treat all complaints of retaliation very seriously. All such complaints will be reviewed promptly and investigated as appropriate.

2.3 GENETIC INFORMATION

We understand that certain employee information is confidential. For that reason, and in compliance with the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, we will not discriminate against employees and applicants for employment in hiring, firing, and other terms and conditions of employment on the basis of genetic information.

We also will not request or require you to provide genetic information, except: (1) inadvertently requesting or requiring family medical history; (2) requesting or requiring family medical history for purposes of complying with certification requirements of any family and medical leave laws; or (3) genetic monitoring of the biological effects of toxic substances in the workplace, when required to do so by law.

2.4 PREGNANCY

The Illinois Human Rights Act, the Pregnancy Discrimination Act and other laws make it illegal for an employer to fire you, refuse to hire you or refuse to provide you with a reasonable accommodation because of your pregnancy. We will not discriminate against you because of your pregnancy or retaliate against you because you requested a reasonable accommodation. You may continue working during your pregnancy if a reasonable accommodation is available which would allow you to continue performing your job. For more information on a pregnancy related accommodation, please see our Reasonable Accommodation Policy.

Specifically, the Illinois Human Rights Act makes it illegal to refuse to hire, to segregate, or to act with respect to recruitment, hiring, promotion, renewal of employment, selection for training or apprenticeship, discharge, discipline, tenure or terms, privileges or conditions of employment on the basis of pregnancy, childbirth, or medical or common conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth. Women affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or medical or common conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth shall be treated the same for all employment-related purposes, including receipt of benefits under fringe benefit programs, as other persons not so affected but similar in their ability or inability to work, regardless of the source of the inability to work or employment classification or status.

We support the rights provided under the Illinois Human Rights Act, including the right to be free from unlawful discrimination and the right to certain reasonable accommodations as listed in our Reasonable Accommodation Policy. Should you have an issue or concern that falls under this policy, please use our Open Door Policy. Note that this law is also enforced by the Illinois Department of Human Rights.

2.5 REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION POLICY

2.5.1 DISABILITY-RELATED ACCOMMODATION

We will provide a reasonable accommodation to qualified individuals with disabilities who can otherwise perform the involved job's essential functions.

When a qualified individual with a disability may be able to perform the job's essential functions, but cannot do so without a reasonable accommodation, the individual should request an accommodation from the President. Once a request for a reasonable accommodation has been made, we will work with the employee to consider the appropriateness of the requested accommodation and whether an accommodation is possible without creating an undue hardship. It is our goal to work in a cooperative process to find an acceptable solution that will enable an employee to perform the job's essential functions. If such a reasonable accommodation is not possible, or if the accommodation would cause an undue hardship, the request for accommodation may be denied.

2.5.2 PREGNANCY RELATED ACCOMMODATION

For any medical or common condition related to pregnancy or childbirth, we will honor employee requests for a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation imposes an undue hardship on the ordinary operation of the organization. Examples of accommodations include:

- More frequent or longer bathroom breaks;
- Breaks for increased water intake;
- Breaks for periodic rest;
- Private non-bathroom space for expressing breast milk and breastfeeding;
- Seating;
- Assistance with manual labor;
- Light duty;
- Temporary transfer to a less strenuous or hazardous position;
- The provision of an accessible worksite;
- Acquisition or modification of equipment;
- Job restructuring;
- A part-time or modified work schedule;
- Appropriate adjustment or modifications of examinations, training materials, or policies;
- Reassignment to a vacant position;
- Time off to recover from conditions related to childbirth; and
- Leave necessitated by pregnancy, childbirth, or medical or common conditions resulting from pregnancy or childbirth.

Note that you may reject an accommodation offered to you that you do not desire, and you may continue working during your pregnancy if a reasonable accommodation is available which would allow you to continue performing your job.

2.6 SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND HARASSMENT

We strongly disapprove of and will not tolerate sexual harassment or harassment of any kind. Employees must avoid offensive or inappropriate behavior at work. Our goal is a workplace free of harassment and sexual harassment.

Discussed below are the types of conduct prohibited by this policy, as well as the complaint procedure to investigate and remedy allegations.

2.6.1 DEFINITIONS

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; and
- The harasser's conduct must be unwelcome.

Likewise, harassment is any verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility toward an employee because of the employee's actual or perceived race (including traits associated with race, such as hair texture and protective hairstyles), color, pregnancy, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, marital status, disability (including an association with a person with a disability), military status, sexual orientation, unfavorable discharge from military service, order of protection status, genetic information status, work authorization status, or other basis which may be protected by applicable law. Harassment occurs when such conduct has the purpose or effect of interfering with an employee's work performance, creating a hostile or offensive work environment, or otherwise adversely affecting an employee's employment opportunities.

2.6.2 CIRCUMSTANCES

Sexual harassment and harassment can occur in a variety of circumstances:

- Males and females can commit harassment and sexual harassment;
- Harassers can be of the same or opposite gender of the victim. The victim as well as the harasser may be a woman or a man.
- The harasser can be the victim's supervisor, an agent of the employer, a supervisor in another area, a co-worker, or a non-employee;
- The victim does not have to be the person harassed but could be anyone affected by the offensive conduct;
- Unlawful harassment may occur without economic injury to or discharge of the victim; and
- The harasser's conduct is unwelcome.

2.6.3 EXAMPLES OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment may consist of verbal, physical, or other unwelcome acts of a sexual nature. Examples of sexual harassment include:

- Making unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, requests for dates, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature;
- Making submission to or rejection of unwelcome conduct the basis for employment decisions, including, but not limited to, hiring, firing, failing to promote, reassigning with different responsibilities or a decision causing a significant change in benefits;
- Engaging in preferential treatment or a promise of preferential treatment to an individual in exchange for sexual conduct or dates;
- Denying or threatening to deny employment, advancement, privileges, benefits, or entitlement to an individual because of that individual's refusal to consent to sexual advances, or because of hostility toward the presence of that individual's gender in the workplace;
- Displaying cartoons, photographs, jokes, or other material of a sexual nature;
- Groping, grabbing touching or other unwelcome physical contact;
- Engaging in sexually explicit or obscene language and gestures;
- Engaging in flirtations, propositions or other unwanted requests;
- Using sexually patronizing terms like "honey," "doll," "chick," "hunk," "stud," or "babe";
- Spreading rumors about another's sexual activity;
- Touching oneself in a sexual fashion in front of others;
- Talking about one's own sexual activities in front of others;
- Making sexual comments about another person's body; and
- Accessing inappropriate web sites or using computers to convey sexual materials.

2.6.4 EXAMPLES OF HARASSMENT

Examples of harassment can vary widely depending on the circumstances; however, common examples include:

- Racial epithets;
- Racial or ethnic slurs;
- Racial or ethnic jokes;
- Racially motivated threats of violence; and
- Derogatory terms.

2.6.5 THIRD PARTIES

If a non-employee harasses you on work premises or during a work-related function (e.g., vendors, contractors and consultants), you should report the incident just as if the behavior came from a fellow employee.

Similarly, we must treat all those we encounter at work with respect. It is a violation of this policy for an employee to harass non-employees on our premises or during work related functions. Non-employees include individuals performing services for us, such as contractors and consultants.

2.6.6 COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

If you believe you have been harassed or sexually harassed, you should promptly report the incident to the Human Resources Coordinator. If you witness conduct that you believe is harassment or sexual harassment, that conduct should be reported as well. All complaints will be investigated and treated seriously.

We will investigate complaints of harassment and sexual harassment. Investigations will be conducted timely, with due regard for the sensitive and serious nature of the allegations. We will conduct a thorough investigation, which may include interviewing the alleged victim, potential witnesses, and the alleged harasser. To the greatest extent possible, the investigation and its results will remain confidential; however, disclosure of some details to certain employees may be necessary in the investigation process.

Upon completion of the investigation, a determination as to the merits of the allegations will be made. The employees involved will be informed of the results of the investigation.

2.6.7 ALTERNATE REPORTING

If you are uncomfortable reporting a complaint to Human Resources Coordinator, then you should contact the VP of HR or Sr. Pastor.

2.6.8 DISCIPLINE AND PENALTIES FOR SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment and harassment are serious violations of state and federal law and the rules of conduct expected of all employees. If it is determined that an employee participated in sexual harassment or harassment, the employee will be subject to discipline, up to and including immediate discharge.

2.6.9 PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION

Retaliation against those who believe they have been victims of harassment or sexual harassment, or have otherwise opposed harassment and sexual harassment in the workplace, is prohibited.

2.7 TITLE IX POLICY

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity. Since ILCS supports the prohibition of discrimination based on sex including sexual harassment and employment discrimination and because ILCS may seek to obtain federal funding for its educational institution, Immanuel is committed to adhering to all Title IX regulations as applicable. Additionally, ILCS requires that each employee receive Sexual Harassment Prevention Training within thirty (30) days of employment.

While it is often thought of as a law that applies to athletics programs, Title IX is much broader than athletics and applies to many programs at Immanuel including math, science, standardized testing and technology. While compliance with the law is the responsibility of every Immanuel employee, the staff members listed below have been identified as Immanuel's Title IX Coordinators and have primary responsibility for Title IX compliance at Immanuel.

- Title IX Coordinator: Human Resources Coordinator
- Title IX Deputy Coordinator: Senior Pastor
- Title IX Deputy Coordinator: School Principal

If you have a complaint against any Immanuel Lutheran Church or School employee, for sexual harassment, sex discrimination, or sexual assault, please contact one of the above personnel. This information is also posted in the employee work room.

3. EMPLOYMENT

3.1 EMPLOYMENT AT WILL

This Personnel Policy Manual is not a contract or agreement of employment, or any right to an employment-related benefit or procedure. Employment as a faculty/staff employee is at will. This means that employment may be terminated, with or without cause, at any time and without prior notice, by the employee or by Immanuel. This also means that Immanuel may assign additional or different job duties to its employees and/or alter their job duties at any time. Any employment position that is dependent upon external funding is also at will and may be terminated at any time. An employee's at-will employment status can only be modified by a written employment agreement signed by the President of the Board of Directors, the Senior Pastor and the employee. An employee's at-will employment status cannot be modified by an oral or implied agreement, nor can an employee's at-will employment status be modified by any ILCS Manual, including this Personnel Policy Manual, or any course of conduct, practice, policy, performance evaluation, transfer, or an employee's length of service.

3.2 IMMIGRATION REFORM AND CONTROL ACT

Immanuel is committed to full compliance with the Federal immigration laws and will not knowingly hire or continue to employ anyone who does not have the legal right to work in the United States. As a condition of employment, an employee will be required to provide documentation verifying his or her identity and legal authority to work in the United States, which includes the completion of Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification.

3.3 NEW HIRE ACT

By Federal Law, all employers are required to report newly hired employees to the designated State agency in the State where the employees are hired within twenty (20) days of the hire date. This requirement is the result of legislation designed to improve child-support enforcement by locating parents who have neglected to pay support.

3.4 EMPLOYEE BACKGROUND CHECKS AND FINGERPRINTING

Because fingerprinting and background checks are required in order to remain in compliance with Illinois law for non-public schools, Immanuel Lutheran Church and School requires all employees to authorize an Illinois State Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation fingerprint-based criminal history records check to determine if an employee has been convicted of specific criminal or drug offenses. Additionally, the Bill requires Immanuel to perform a check of the State-wide Sex Offender Database for each employee to determine whether the employee has been adjudicated a sex offender. Both conditions must be initiated no later than the first (1st) day of employment. Reports resulting from these checks will be received and reviewed by the Human Resources Coordinator or by the Senior Pastor if there is not a Human Resources Coordinator on staff.

3.5 ABUSED AND NEGLECTED CHILD ACT

Immanuel Lutheran Church and School requires all employees to successfully complete Illinois Department of Child and Family (DCFS) training for mandated reporters and become an acknowledged mandated reporter under the Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act. This condition of employment must be initiated no later than the first (1st) day of employment. Information about this condition of employment is available from the Human Resource Coordinator or the Vice President of Human Resources.

3.6 CIVIL RIGHTS

As an institution participating in the United States Department of Agriculture funded Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), Immanuel Lutheran Church & School must not discriminate in the operation of its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. To ensure those involved in all levels of the CACFP understand its civil rights requirements, all workers who interact with our school students are required to annually complete the Illinois State Board of Education Civil rights training course. Information about this condition of employment is available through the Human Resources Coordinator or the Vice President of Human Resources.

3.7 HEALTH AND COMMUNICABLE DISEASE

In accordance with the Illinois School Code, ILCS requires that all new employees provide evidence of physical fitness with regard to performing the duties assigned to them as well as freedom from communicable disease. Information about this condition of employment is available through the Human Resources Coordinator or the Vice President of Human Resources.

3.8 EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS

For employees fifteen to seventeen (15 -17) years of age, the hours of employment and working conditions strictly follow the regulations set forth by Federal and State laws. Regulation information is available through the Human Resources Coordinator or the Vice President of Human Resources.

3.9 EMPLOYMENT CLASSIFICATION

Upon employment, employees will be required to sign an Employee Statement of Acknowledgement, recognizing their employment classification and respective eligibility or ineligibility for benefits. Classifications of employees at Immanuel are as follows:

3.9.1 REGULAR FULL-TIME

Any employee employed to work more than thirty (30) hours per week and more than five (5) consecutive months per calendar year.

3.9.2 SPECIAL FULL-TIME

Any employee employed to work more than twenty (20) hours per week and more than five (5) consecutive months per calendar year.

3.9.3 PART-TIME

Any employee employed to work twenty (20) hours or less per week more than five (5) consecutive months per calendar year.

3.9.4 TEMPORARY

Any employee employed to work less than five (5) consecutive months per calendar year.

3.10 OVERTIME ELIGIBILITY

Non-Exempt staff are governed by the Fair Labor Standards Act and Illinois Minimum Wage Law, which require that non-exempt employees be compensated at a rate of one and one-half their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) worked during the defined work week.

The normal workday is eight (8) hours; the normal work week is forty (40) hours. There are times when overtime hours are required. Overtime hours are defined as only those hours worked over forty (40) hours within a given work week. Holiday hours, paid-benefit hours, and miscellaneous paid-time are not counted as “worked” for determination of overtime applicability within a work week. Any non-exempt staff employee working more than forty (40) hours in any one (1) work week shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1.5) times their regular rate for hours actually worked in excess of forty (40) hours in one (1) work week.

All overtime work must be approved in advance by the supervisor. Voluntary overtime is not permitted. All overtime hours must be paid by inclusion in the employee’s work week period. It is also improper for a non-exempt employee to work overtime, or to work any other unauthorized hours, but fail to record those hours.

3.11 JOB DESCRIPTIONS

A job description is utilized in order to mutually understand what is expected of an employee and for what the employee will be held accountable.

Employees will be given a job description before they begin working. A job description summarizes the duties and responsibilities and provides important information about an employee’s position. An employee should read and study his/her job description carefully upon hire and discuss it with his/her supervisor if there are questions.

Immanuel reserves the right to revise and update job descriptions from time to time, as it deems necessary and appropriate. Immanuel will provide a revised or updated job description to the employee at the time of any revision.

3.12 TENURE STATEMENT – CHURCH/SCHOOL STAFF

Tenure will be granted only to Pastors and the Principal according to Immanuel’s Constitution and Bylaws. Tenure may also be granted by specific written indication in an employee’s Call document. Staff tenure laws were passed to protect staff from arbitrary actions by church and school officials. Tenure laws seek to provide a better system by ensuring the security of good staff and outlining orderly procedures for the dismissal of unsatisfactory staff. A staff member who is Called with tenure status has the right to continued employment subject only to dismissal for cause.

While tenure is the right to continued employment, tenured employees do not have a right to be employed indefinitely if cause is shown for loss of tenure or when the number of personnel exceeds that which is required for the ministries at Immanuel. Termination of employment of any person with tenure shall be in accordance with Article IV and VII of the Constitution and Article I Paragraph E of the By-Laws.

3.12.1 RETENTION OF TENURE AND PROBATION AS APPLIED TO TENURED EMPLOYEES OF IMMANUEL - PASTORS AND THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

- A. Written annual evaluations of a Pastor must be made by the Board of Elders. A copy of this evaluation must be given to the Pastor, signed by the Pastor and Chairman of the Board of Elders and placed in the Pastor's personnel file.
- B. Written annual evaluations of a Principal must be made by the Board of the Christian School in conjunction with the Senior Pastor. A copy of this evaluation must be given to the Principal, signed by the Principal, the Chairman of the Board of the Christian School and the Senior Pastor and placed in the Principal's personnel file.
- C. If a staff member receives an unsatisfactory annual evaluation or if they are deficient in one or more significant areas of their responsibilities, they may be placed on Probation and given a plan to improve their performance.

3.12.2 PROBATION OF TENURED STAFF

- A. Based on the unsatisfactory evaluation, the tenured staff member shall be notified in writing of the probation and the duration of the probationary period by the appropriate Chairman of the Board. Specific areas where improvement is needed shall be outlined along with specific actions to be taken to correct the issue.
- B. During the probation period for a Pastor, written monthly status progress will be prepared by the Chairman of the Board of Elders or his representative and shall be given to the Pastor, signed by both the Chairman of the Board of Elders and the Pastor, and a copy placed in the Pastor's file.
- D. During the probation period for a Principal, written monthly status progress will be prepared by the Chairman of the Board of the Christian School or his representative and the Senior Pastor, and shall be given to the Principal signed by the Chairman of the Board of the Christian School, the Senior Pastor and the Principal, and a copy placed in the Principal's file.
- E. Tenured staff members on probation are to be evaluated by the appropriate Board within ninety (90) days following the date of the first (1st) probationary letter, resulting in one (1) of the following actions:
 - a. The tenured staff member will be notified in writing no later than thirty (30) days after the evaluation has been conducted by the appropriate Board that the probation has been lifted.
 - b. The tenured staff member will be notified in writing, no later than thirty (30) days after the evaluation by the appropriate Board that the probation has been extended for a definite length of time, not to exceed one (1) year. The appropriate Board will have a personal interview with the tenured staff member and discuss their concerns and its implications on the tenured staff member's probation.
 - i. Opportunities for appeal will be allowed for the staff member with representation by members of the staff or other interested parties.
 - ii. Final decision regarding probation will be reached by the appropriate Board in Executive Session and then communicated to the tenured staff member.
 - c. The tenured staff member shall be notified in writing, no later than thirty (30) days after the evaluation of the appropriate Board that his or her progress during the probation period has not been satisfactory. During a personal interview with the tenured staff member, the appropriate Board will discuss their concerns and its implication on dismissal.

3.12.3 LOSS OF TENURE

A. Reasons:

- a. Persistent adherence to false doctrine.
- b. Persistent un-Christian lifestyle.
- c. Persistent and open lack of co-operation with the multiple ministry.
- d. Persistent neglect of collective official duties.
- e. Protracted incapacity to perform duties.
- f. Any tenured staff member also may be released from office by the action of the Voters Assembly when the number of personnel exceeds that which is required for the ministry.

B. Procedures for Loss of Tenure (Based on Matthew 18)

- a. In the case of a Principal, the Senior Pastor shall speak directly to the Principal; and in the case of a Pastor, the Chairman of the Board of Elders shall speak directly to the Pastor, present the nature of the problem, and a course of action, which the Principal or Pastor take to correct said problem.
- b. If the concern is not resolved, the Senior Pastor shall schedule a conference to discuss the issue with the Principal; and for a Pastor, the Chairman of the Board of Elders shall schedule a conference to discuss the issue with the Pastor.
- c. For a Principal, if the problems are not resolved, the Vice President of Human Resources, the Senior Pastor, and the Chairman of the Board of the Christian School (or a member of the Board of the Christian School appointed by the Chairman), shall meet with the Principal to resolve the issue. If the matter pertains to morals or doctrine, the Chairman of the Board of Elders, or a representative appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Elders, shall be involved.
- d. For a Pastor, if the problems are not resolved, the Vice President of Human Resources and the Chairman of the Board of Elders (or a member of the Board of Elders appointed by the Chairman), shall meet with the Pastor to resolve the issue.
- e. The Board of the Christian School will have a personal interview with the Principal (and legal representation if desired), or for a Pastor, the Board of Elders will have a personal interview with the Pastor (and legal representation if desired) to discuss their concern and its implication of loss of tenure and dismissal.
- f. The decision for loss of tenure and/or dismissal shall be presented to the Board of the Christian School for a Principal or the Board of Elders in Executive Session for a Pastor, and if said appropriate board agrees that there should be a loss of tenure or dismissal, that said loss of tenure or dismissal shall be presented to the Voters Assembly under proceedings set forth in the Constitution under Article IV B.

3.12.4 TERMINATION OF TENURE

The staff member, upon notification of termination, if requested to do so, shall continue to perform their duties in a Christian manner until the date of termination.

3.13 PERFORMANCE REVIEW

It is understood that all who are employed at Immanuel will agree to support and work towards the fulfillment of Immanuel's Mission and Vision. We strive for all employees to receive an annual written review. The purpose of the performance review is intended to provide support for the individual; to improve the performance of the individual by providing meaningful, constructive feedback on the adequacy of performance; and to assist in the development and fulfillment of professional and personal growth goals, as well as the ministry plan of Immanuel's congregation. Written reviews will be completed on a Performance Evaluation Form by the supervising staff member seeking input from the appropriate Board and other knowledgeable sources. Written performance reviews will include comments for each section as well as a summary statement. The review will also include employee strengths, areas for improvement and goals for the coming year. All reviews will be shared with the employee. Discussion can take place during the review session of the employee's development plans and goals for the coming year. Performance evaluations help Immanuel make important decisions about job placement, training and development, and pay increases. A satisfactory performance evaluation does not guarantee a pay increase nor does it alter, modify or amend the employment-at-will relationship between the employee and Immanuel.

The performance evaluation will become a permanent part of the employee's personnel file. The reviewing staff member and the employee must sign and date the review. The employee's signature acknowledges that he or she has received the evaluation and not necessarily that he or she is in agreement with its contents. The employee may elect to include written comments which will be attached to the review.

The office of the Senior Pastor will be reviewed by the Board of Elders.

The Senior Pastor is responsible for the performance review of employees working in the church and church office in positions of ministry, leadership or clerical who report directly to him, as defined by the employee's description. The Senior Pastor may delegate this responsibility to the immediate supervisor of the church employee as appropriate.

The Principal will be reviewed by the Board of the Christian School in conjunction with the Senior Pastor. The Principal is responsible for the performance review of the employees working in the school and school office who report directly to him/her as defined by the employee's job description. The Principal may delegate this responsibility to an immediate supervisor of the school employee as appropriate.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

4. BENEFITS

4.1 INTRODUCTION

Immanuel maintains a benefit program to help meet the needs of its employees. The following information outlines benefits for which employees of Immanuel may be eligible.

Please note: If there is any conflict between the terms of any benefit plan described in this handbook and the terms of any benefit plan as described in the plan's summary plan description or plan document, the terms of the summary plan description or plan document shall be controlling. For more detailed information about your benefits, you are encouraged to consult those documents. Although we intend to continue our benefit plans, we realize that unforeseen issues may prevent that from happening. For that reason, we reserve the right to amend, restate or terminate any and all benefit plans. We also have the discretionary authority to determine eligibility for benefits under benefit plans and/or to construe the terms of those plans, including any vacations, paid time off, bonuses or other benefits.

4.2 VACATION TIME

Called, twelve (12) month, Regular and Special Full-Time employees are eligible to accrue paid vacation time based on their seniority date and total number of years of continuous service as a rostered worker with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LCMS). A Called worker's seniority date corresponds to the month and day the employee was Called to ILCS as a full-time employee with the year being adjusted according to total number of years of continuous service as a rostered LCMS worker.

Non-called, twelve (12) month, Regular and Special Full-Time workers are eligible to accrue paid vacation time based on their seniority date and total number of years of continuous full-time employment with ILCS. A non-called employee's seniority date corresponds to the month, day and year the employee was hired as a full-time employee at Immanuel.

Regular and Special Full-Time ten (10) month workers, Part-Time, and Temporary employees are not eligible to accrue vacation time; absence from work for vacation may be taken on an unpaid basis.

Eligible employees will accrue vacation time after two (2) months of full-time continuous employment with Immanuel earning one-fourth (1/4) day vacation time at the end of each pay cycle for a maximum of five (5) days in the first (1st) year of employment.

After the first year of employment, eligible employees shall accrue one-twenty-fourth (1/24) of their annual vacation time at the end of each pay cycle. The table below details the vacation accrual schedule based on a 40-hour work week. Eligible employees scheduled to work an annual average of more or less than 40-hours per work week according to their job description shall accrue prorated Vacation Time according to their annual average work week hours.

Years of Continuous Service (Per Seniority)	Vacation Time Accrued (Based on a 40-hour work)
Less than 1 (months 1-12)	One-fourth (1/4) day at the end of each pay cycle worked in excess of two (2) months for a maximum of five (5) days (40-hours).
1 through 4 (months 13-48)	2-weeks / 10-days / 80-hours
5 through 9 (months 49-108)	3-weeks / 15-days / 120-hours
10 and over (months 109+)	4-weeks / 20-days / 160-hours

Requests for vacation time must be made in writing and should be submitted to the appropriate supervisor for approval at least one (1) month in advance for vacations of at least five (5) days. Vacation time may not be requested in less than half-day increments. Vacation time may not be requested more than one (1) year in advance unless otherwise authorized by the Senior Pastor in the case of a Principal or by the Board of Elders in the case of a Pastor. The order in which requests are received will apply when more than one (1) person requests the same vacation day(s).

Vacation is a reward for faithful service and employees are encouraged to use their vacation time as a means of rest and recuperation. Unused vacation will not be carried- over into the following year. In no case will pay be granted in lieu of vacation time.

Eligible employees completing a minimum of one (1) year of service with Immanuel will receive pay for unused accrued vacation time upon termination of employment.

4.3 HOLIDAY TIME

Regular and Special Full-Time twelve (12) month workers are eligible for and entitled to the following designated paid holidays each year:

- New Year’s Day
- Good Friday
- Memorial Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day

The following general provisions apply:

1. Holidays falling on Saturday will be observed on the Friday prior to the holiday, and holidays falling on Sunday will be observed on the following Monday. An alternate day may be taken in lieu of a holiday that falls on a normal day off or if an employee works on the holiday. An alternate day must be approved by the Principal or Senior Pastor, and by the Board of Elders in the case of the Senior Pastor.
2. A holiday that falls on a scheduled vacation day or during any other period of paid time off will be recorded as Holiday Time.
3. Eligible employees scheduled to work an annual average of more or less than 40 hours per work week according to their job description shall be paid prorated Holiday Time according to their annual average work week hours.

January 1, 2024-PENDING

All twelve (12) month Part-Time and Temporary workers are not eligible for or entitled to receive paid Holiday Time; absence from work to observe a designated holiday may be taken on an unpaid basis.

All ten (10) month school workers are not eligible for or entitled to receive paid Holiday Time; these workers observe holidays according to the annual school calendar as approved by the Board of the Christian School.

4.4 SICK TIME

All Regular and Special Full-Time workers employed by Immanuel as of July 1st of each year are eligible to accrue five (5) days of paid Sick Time per fiscal year (July 1 to June 30). Eligible employees hired after July 1st of a fiscal year will accrue Sick Time at a rate of one-third (1/3) of one sick day per pay cycle; this Sick Time will not be available for use until after thirty (30) days of employment.

All Part-Time and Temporary workers are not eligible for or entitled to accrue paid Sick Time; absence from work due to illness will be taken on an unpaid basis (See Leaves of Absence and Other Time Off, paragraphs 4.8 – 4.8.8).

Eligible employees scheduled to work an annual average of more or less than 40-hours per work week according to their job description shall accrue prorated Sick Time according to their annual average work week hours.

Unused Sick Time may be carried over to the subsequent fiscal year with a deferred accrual not to exceed nine (9) days. Carried over Sick Time plus current fiscal year Sick Time (five (5) days) shall total no more that seventeen (14) days. Departing employees will not be paid for unused Sick Time.

Notification must be given each day of absence due to illness to either the Senior Pastor, Principal or the Early Childhood Director the morning of the absence unless, in the case of an on-going illness, the requirement is waived by the Senior Pastor, Principal or the Early Childhood Director.

All employees who are absent from work for more than five (5) consecutive days will require a written release from their physician stating that they may return to work.

In cases involving serious or extended illness, special consideration will be given by the Senior Pastor or Principal and the Vice President of Human Resources with regard to the approval of any exception to this policy.

Eligible employees may use paid Sick Time:

- For their own illness, injury or medical appointment;
- For employee absences due to an illness, injury, or medical appointment of the employee's child, stepchild, spouse, domestic partner, sibling, parent, parent-in-law, grandchild, grandparent, or stepparent (a "covered family member"); For personal care of a covered family member; or
- For a serious health condition of the employee or the employee's spouse, child or parent that qualifies for leave under the FMLA.

For purposes of Sick Time, an eligible employee's child is a biological child, adopted child, foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child of a person standing in the place of a child ("in loco parentis").

4.5 BEREAVEMENT TIME

All Regular and Special Full-Time and Part-Time employees are eligible for four (4) paid days of absence due to the death of an immediate family member. Immediate family is defined as spouse, child, grandchild, parent, brother, sister or grandparent of either the employee or his or her spouse. Requests for additional time for extraordinary circumstances will be considered by the Senior Pastor or Principal on an individual basis.

Eligible employees scheduled to work an annual average of more or less than 40-hours per work week according to their job description shall accrue prorated Bereavement Time according to their annual average work week hours.

Temporary workers are not eligible for or entitled to paid Bereavement Time; absence from work for bereavement may be taken on an unpaid basis.

4.6 FAMILY BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

In addition to the bereavement leave described above, certain employees may be eligible for additional bereavement leave. This policy does not create a right to take unpaid leave that exceeds the unpaid leave time allowed under, or is in addition to the unpaid leave time permitted by the Family and Medical Leave Act.

4.6.1 ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES

Eligible employees are those employees eligible for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

4.6.2 REASONS FOR LEAVE

An eligible employee may take leave for the following reasons:

- Attending the funeral or alternative to a funeral of a covered family member;
- Making arrangements necessitated by the death of a covered family member;
- Grieving the death of the covered family member; or
- Being absent from work due to:
 - A miscarriage;
 - An unsuccessful round of intrauterine insemination or of an assisted reproductive technology procedure;
 - A failed adoption match or an adoption that is not finalized because it is contested by another party;
 - A failed surrogacy agreement;
 - A diagnosis that negatively impacts pregnancy or fertility; or
 - A stillbirth.

A "covered family member" is an eligible employee's child, stepchild, spouse, domestic partner, sibling, parent, mother-in-law, father-in-law, grandchild, grandparent, or stepparent.

A "child" is an eligible employee's biological child, adopted child, foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child of a person standing in the place of a child ("loco parentis").

4.6.3 LEAVE BENEFIT

Eligible employees may take 10 workdays leave:

- To attend the funeral or alternative to a funeral of a covered family member;
- To make arrangements necessitated by the death of a covered family member; To grieve the covered family member's death; or
- To address the other reasons listed above.

4.6.4 PAY

Family Bereavement Leave is without pay; however, eligible employees may use available paid Bereavement Leave, Personal, Sick or Vacation during the leave.

4.6.5 DOCUMENTATION

We may require reasonable documentation confirming the need for leave.

4.6.6 RESTRICTIONS

Family Bereavement Leave must be taken within 60 days after the date on which the employee receives notice of the death of the covered family member; or the occurrence of the other reasons listed above. In the unfortunate instance of multiple deaths in a 12-month period, the employee is entitled to a total of six weeks Family Bereavement Leave.

Note, the total amount of leave taken may be coordinated with leave for which you may also be eligible under the Domestic, Sexual, Gender and Crime of Violence Leave Policy.

4.7 CHILD EXTENDED BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Certain employees may also be eligible for additional bereavement leave due to the death of a child by suicide or homicide. A “child” is an eligible employee’s biological child, adopted child, foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child of a person standing in the place of a parent (in “loco parentis”).

4.7.1 ELIGIBILITY

Full-time employees are eligible for leave after two weeks of employment.

4.7.2 LEAVE BENEFIT

Eligible employees are entitled to six weeks of unpaid leave. Leave may be taken in a single continuous period, or intermittently in increments of no less than four hours; provided, however, leave must be completed within one year after you notify us of your loss.

4.7.3 PAY

Leave is without pay; however, eligible employees may use available vacation or other paid time off during the leave.

4.7.4 NOTICE AND DOCUMENTATION

We request reasonable advance notice of the need for leave, unless providing such notice is not reasonable and practicable.

We may require documentation of the need for leave, such as a death certificate, a published obituary, or written verification of death, burial, or memorial services from a funeral home, religious institution, or government agency. We may require the documentation to include the cause of death.

4.7.5 RESTRICTIONS

If you use leave under this policy, you may not also take leave under the Family Bereavement Leave policy for the death of the same child.

4.8 LEAVES OF ABSENCE AND OTHER TIME OFF

4.8.1 INTRODUCTION

Immanuel makes leaves of absence without pay available to employees who have completed at least one (1) year of continuous service at Immanuel, for any length of time up to a maximum number of days that is recommended by the appropriate board or committee and approved by the Board of Directors. Written requests must state the reason for the leave, as well as the beginning and ending dates. Requests for leaves will be granted at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, based on the facts and circumstances surrounding each individual request. Employees who return to work at the end of a leave of absence will normally be returned to their former job classification if an opening exists. If there is no such opening, they will be considered for a comparable position if one is available. Leaves of absence are also granted where State and/or Federal law mandates. In particular, Immanuel complies with leaves for jury duty and in situations where the State or Federal Family Medical Leave Act applies. In any situation regarding leaves of absence, the employee should notify the appropriate supervisor at the earliest possible date to discuss the leave.

4.8.2 GENERAL PROVISIONS

The following general provisions apply to all leaves of absence and other time off:

1. In cases where a salaried worker requires time off in excess of his/her available paid time off for a full day absence, an amount equal to the annual base salary of the employee divided by the number of annual scheduled workdays of the employee will be deducted from the pay of the employee for each full workday absent.
2. A request for an extension of a leave of absence, when possible, must be made in writing prior to the expiration date of the original leave, and when appropriate, must be accompanied by a physician's written statement that certifies the need for the extension.
3. Failure to return to work on the first (1st) workday following the expiration of an approved leave of absence may be considered a voluntary termination by the employee of his/her employment.
4. Coverage under Immanuel's group employee benefit plans will be continued per the benefit provider policy.
5. Employees will not accrue length of continuous service for the portion of a leave of absence in excess of thirty (30) days, unless otherwise provided by law.
6. Employees on leave of absence will be subject to a Reduction-In-Force (RIF) on the same basis as employees who are actively at work.
7. Employees on leave of absence must communicate with their supervisor at Immanuel on a regular basis, at least once each month, regarding their status and anticipated return to work date.
8. Employees on leave of absence who seek or accept other employment without Immanuel's prior written approval may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
9. Employees who falsify the reason for their leave of absence may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
10. A leave of absence must be approved in advance, in writing, by the Senior Pastor, Principal or by the Board of Directors in the case of a Senior Pastor, except in situations where mandatory approval is required by law.

4.8.3 JURY DUTY

Employees will be granted leave with pay for jury duty service as required by law. Employees will provide a copy of their jury duty paycheck to the Human Resources Coordinator, Senior Pastor or Principal as confirmation of their jury service days . If an employee is called for jury service at a time that would unreasonably interfere with normal business operations, the Senior Pastor or Principal may ask any employee to request the court to postpone the employee's jury duty to a more convenient time due to scheduling necessities. However, an employee may not be refused time off if the court declines to postpone the jury duty.

4.8.4 MILITARY LEAVE

We support and respect those individuals who serve in the military. As a sign of our support, we comply with the federal Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, the Illinois Service Member Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, and the Illinois Family Military Leave Act. Supervisors are to be notified as far in advance as possible to allow for the redistribution of work assignments.

4.8.5 WORKERS COMPENSATION

Immanuel complies with applicable State and Federal law concerning time off and leaves for work-related illness or injury. It is important that an employee report any work-related injury to his or her supervisor as soon as it happens. The status of employees on leave because of work-related illness or injury will be reviewed on an individual basis by the Senior Pastor or Principal and the VP of Human Resources.

4.8.6 FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE

Immanuel Lutheran Church and School recognizes that a leave of absence may be necessary for family or medical reasons and is committed to complying with the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993 as applicable. The US Department of Labor's notice of Employee Rights and Responsibilities under the Family and Medical Leave Act (WHD Publication 1420) is posted in the employee workroom. An FMLA Fact Sheet (#28) is also available on the US Department of Labors' website and upon request from the ILCS Human Resources Coordinator.

An employee who anticipates the possibility of taking family or medical leave, or has any question regarding the application of this policy should be directed to the Human Resources Coordinator, Senior Pastor or the Principal.

Generally, eligible employees (as defined by the FMLA) are entitled to take up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a twelve (12) month period for specific family and/or medical reasons (as defined by the FMLA) or for any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that a covered military member is on active duty, or has been notified of an impending order of active duty. Up to twenty-six (26) weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a twelve (12) month period are permitted to care for a family member with an illness or injury incurred in the line of military duty.

An employee who expects or anticipates taking family or medical leave is required to notify the Human Resources Coordinator, Senior Pastor or Principal of the expected date of commencement and expected duration of the leave at least thirty (30) days in advance of the leave, and preferably in writing. If the need for the leave is not foreseeable, notification should be made as soon as is practicable.

January 1, 2024-PENDING

An employee can secure an FMLA resource packet from the Human Resources Coordinator. This packet contains information and the necessary materials to be completed and returned to Human Resources Office prior to starting the FMLA period (if applicable). Upon completion and receipt, all FMLA documents will reside in the employee's confidential benefits file in the Human Resources Office.

An employee requesting leave under this policy is required to complete any resulting certification requests and submit them to the Human Resources Coordinator, Senior Pastor or Principal within the FMLA certification guidelines. During the employee's leave, ILCS, through the Human Resources Coordinator, may periodically inquire as to the employee's status and intent to return to work.

An employee shall first exhaust all available paid Personal, Vacation, and Sick Time before continuing an FMLA leave on an unpaid basis.

Under the provisions of the FMLA, when the employee is approved for an FMLA leave, ILCS is required to hold his/her position (or an equivalent position), for twelve (12) weeks. If the employee is unable to return to work after the FMLA leave is exhausted, ILCS has no further obligation to hold the employee's position and the employee may be terminated. Additionally, if holding an employee's position will cause "substantial and grievous economic injury" to the operation of ILCS, an employee may be designated as "key" (as defined by the FMLA) and thus denied job restoration. "Key" status will be communicated by ILCS on the Notice of Eligibility and Rights & Responsibilities Form WH-381.

During an employee's FMLA, ILCS will continue to provide group health insurance coverage if such insurance was provided before the leave was taken and on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. If applicable, arrangements will be made for an employee to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave (i.e. family coverage). If an employee fails to return from the FMLA leave, the employee will be required the employee to repay ILCS for any health plan or benefit payments paid to maintain the employee's benefit coverage during the period of unpaid leave unless there is a recurrence or continuation of the serious health condition that entitled the employee to the leave. The employee is responsible for submitting justification that the failure to return from FMLA leave is based upon a recurrence or continuation of the serious health condition.

Before returning to work, an employee who is on a leave of absence as a result of his/her own serious health condition must submit a health care provider's written certification that the employee is released to return to work. Failure to provide such certification may result in the delay or denial of job restoration.

4.8.7 DOMESTIC, SEXUAL, GENDER AND CRIME OF VIOLENCE LEAVE

Pursuant to the Illinois Victims' Economic Security and Safety Act ("VESSA"), we grant leave to employees who are victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, gender violence, or any other crime of violence, or to those who have family members who are victims of domestic violence, sexual violence, gender violence, or any other crime of violence, and whose interests are not adverse to the employee as it relates to the domestic, sexual, gender, or other crime of violence based upon the following requirements, terms and conditions.

Employee Eligibility. All employees are eligible for leave under this policy.

Amount of Leave.

- For leave due to domestic, sexual, gender, or other crime of violence, employees are entitled to a maximum of 12 weeks of leave during a 12-month period;
- For leave due to death of a family or household member who is killed in a crime of violence as described below, employees are entitled to no more than 10 workdays of leave, and such leave must be completed within 60 days after the date on which the employee receives notice of the death of the victim.
- Note, the total amount of leave taken may be coordinated with leave for which you may also be eligible under the Family Bereavement Policy.

Reasons for Leave. An employee who is a victim of domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence, or who has a family or household member who is a victim of domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence and whose interests are not adverse to the employee as it relates to the domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence may be entitled to leave for the following reasons. ("Family or household member" means a spouse or party to a civil union, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, sibling, or any other person related by blood or by present or prior marriage or civil union, other person who shares a relationship through a child, or any other individual whose close association with the employee is the equivalent of a family relationship as determined by the employee and persons jointly residing in the same household.)

- Seeking medical attention for or recovering from physical or psychological injuries caused by domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence to the employee or the employee's family or household member;
- Obtaining services from a victim services organization for the employee or the employee's family or household member;
- Obtaining psychological or other counseling for the employee or the employee's family or household member;
- Participating in safety planning, temporarily or permanently relocating, or taking other actions to increase the safety of the employee or the employee's family or household member from future domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence, or ensure economic security;
- Seeking legal assistance or remedies to ensure the health and safety of the employee or the employee's family or household member, including preparing for or participating in any civil or criminal legal proceeding related to or derived from domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence;
- Attending the funeral or similar service of a family or household member who is killed in a crime of violence;
- Making arrangements necessitated by the death of a family or household member who is killed in a crime of violence; or
- Grieving the death of a family or household member who is killed in a crime of violence.

Notice. You should give at least 48 hours' notice prior to the commencement of your leave, unless such notice is not practicable. If you cannot give 48 hours' notice, we may request that you provide certification of your need for leave as described below.

Certification. We may require you to certify your right to leave by submitting a sworn statement and, if you have possession of such documents, you should provide:

January 1, 2024-PENDING

- Documentation from an employee or volunteer of a victim services organization, an attorney, clergy member, or a medical or other professional from whom the employee or the employee's family or household member has sought assistance; or
- A police or court record; or
- Other corroborating evidence.

You may choose which document to submit, and we will not request or require more than one document to be submitted.

Confidentiality. All information pertaining to the use, notice, and certification of domestic, sexual, gender, or any other crime of violence leave provided shall be retained in the strictest confidence, except to the extent that disclosure is requested or consented to in writing by you, or otherwise required by applicable law.

Intermittent Leave. Leave may be taken consecutively, intermittently, or on a reduced leave schedule (i.e., taking leave in separate blocks of time, rather than leave a continuous period).

Unpaid Leave/Substitution of Leave. Leave is without pay. You may decide, however, to substitute for VESSA leave an equivalent amount of paid leave that you have available, or an equivalent amount of any unpaid leave that you have available, until such paid or unpaid leaves have been exhausted. In no situation may you duplicate benefits or attempt to use benefits simultaneously that would result in you receiving benefits greater than 100% of your base hourly or salary rate. The remaining weeks of leave will be without pay.

Health and Medical Benefits. During leave, health benefits (if any) will be continued under the same conditions as if you had remained actively employed.

Other Benefits. During leave, other benefits do not continue to accrue.

Reporting. We may require you to report periodically, in writing, of your status and intention of returning to work upon completion of leave.

Return to Work. Upon completion of leave, we will restore you to the position you held prior to the leave, or to a substantially equivalent position, subject to exceptions as provided by law.

4.8.8 ILLINOIS PAID LEAVE

Note, except for leaves or time off that qualifies and is elected under this Illinois Paid Leave Policy, we may require employees to provide advance notice of leave paid time off, or other time off, and/or compliance with call in procedures as set forth in those policies. For such leaves, we may also require a reason and documentation of the need for leave or absence.

Eligibility. All employees are eligible for Illinois Paid Leave.

Benefit.

- Regularly Scheduled Employees. Employees with regular work schedules of at least 1,600 hours worked in the 12-Month Period receive 40 hours of Illinois Paid Leave. Employees with regular work schedules of fewer than 1,600 hours worked in the 12-Month Period receive fewer paid leave hours pro rata based on a 40 hour maximum paid leave benefit per 12-month period

We will frontload paid leave hours on an employee's first day of employment, and on the first day of the 12-month period thereafter. For employees working fewer than 12 months in their initial 12-Month Period, we will frontload a lesser pro rata share for the balance of the 12-Month Period.

If an employee's schedule changes with an increase in hours, or if an employee works more hours than anticipated we will load additional leave at a rate of one hour of paid leave for every 40 hours worked, up to a total 40 paid leave hours for the calendar year. For employees working less than 12 months in their initial calendar year, we will frontload a lesser pro rata share for the balance of the year.

- Variable Hours Employees. Seasonal, temporary, minimal part-time, and other employees who are expected to work fewer than 1,600 hours a year and/or with great variations in hours worked each week, will be classified as "Variable Hours Employees." Variable Hours Employees will accrue one hour of Illinois Paid Leave for every 40 hours worked up to a maximum of 40 hours earned in the 12-Month Period.

12-Month Period. The Illinois Paid Leave benefit will be based on the "12-Month Period" which is the calendar year, January 1 – December 31.

Scheduling Leave. Requests for Illinois Paid Leave, if foreseeable, must be provided with seven calendar days' notice. If the need for leave is unforeseeable, requests for Illinois Paid Leave must be provided as soon as practicable.

Notice of the need for leave must be provided to the immediate supervisor either orally or in writing (including electronic means).

Illinois Paid Leave cannot be used during the first 90-days of employment. Employees may use no more than 40 hours of Illinois Paid Leave in the 12-Month Period.

In case of operational necessity, we may deny an employee's request for leave. An "operational necessity" is more than a mere temporary inconvenience. An operational necessity is an occurrence involving a threat: to the physical plant of the premises and/or its equipment or property (e.g., flood, fire, recovery from a natural disaster, or the need for protection of property and equipment); to the health, safety, or well-being of co-workers or clients due to significantly inadequate staffing; or to the ability to engage in on-going operations of the company, a division, or department due to significantly inadequate staffing. Exceptions may be made for employee leave requests due to illness, injury, family emergency, or similar reasons.

Reason for Leave. Illinois Paid Leave may be taken for any reason of the employee's choosing. We will not require you to provide a reason for such leave, or documentation or certification as proof of, or in support of the need for Illinois Paid Leave. So we can properly track Illinois Paid Leave use, however, we may ask you if you are using Illinois Paid Leave to cover an absence. You may request to use other types of leave provided by us or under State law before using Illinois Paid Leave. If you do not request that another type of leave be used, we will designate the time off as Illinois Paid Leave and the time will be deducted from your Illinois Paid Leave balance if such time is available.

Other Requirements.

- Frontloaded unused Illinois Paid Leave days do not carryover from 12-Month Period to 12-Month Period;
- For Variable Hours Employees, unused Illinois Paid Leave will carryover from 12-Month Period to 12-Month Period (however, employees may use no more than 40 hours of Illinois Paid Leave in the 12-Month Period);
- Illinois Paid Leave balances are not paid out upon termination of employment;
- Illinois Paid Leave is paid at an employee’s hourly rate of pay, or the hourly equivalent for salaried employees; and
- Illinois Paid Leave must be used in a minimum increment of two hours per day.

4.9 GROUP EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Because of its Christian concern for its employees, Immanuel provides benefit programs in order to help its employees with expenses related to illness, injury or death, as well as to provide retirement income. Employee eligibility for enrollment in worker benefits according to the Employee Classification provisions detailed below:

	Regular Full-Time	Special Full-Time	Part-Time & Temporary
Concordia Health Plan (CHP)	YES	NO	NO
Concordia Health Plan provides benefits for a wide range of healthcare needs including medical, prescription drug, mental health and substance abuse, and vision benefits; as well as health and wellness programs, employee assistance programs, and hearing care discounts. Completion of an annual enrollment form is required. Immanuel Lutheran Church pays the cost of each employee’s individual coverage. Each employee has the option of paying the additional cost of coverage for family members. Plan information is available at www.concordiaplans.org .
	Regular Full-Time	Special Full-Time	Part-Time & Temporary
Concordia Retirement Plan (CRP)	YES	YES	NO
CRP is comprised of three benefit components: Primary Retirement Benefits, a Supplemental Retirement Account, and Retiree Medical Supplement Benefits. Completion of a one-time enrollment form is required. Immanuel Lutheran Church pays the cost for each employee’s Concordia Retirement Plan. Plan information is available at www.concordiaplans.org .
	Regular Full-Time	Special Full-Time	Part-Time & Temporary
Concordia Retirement Savings Plan (CRSP)	YES	YES	NO
CRPS is a 403(b) tax-deferred savings plan that allows workers enrolled in the CRP to invest pre-tax dollars for retirement. Concordia offers a Basic Match of an employee’s contribution and Immanuel Lutheran Church offers an additional Optional Match. Completion of a one-time enrollment form is required. This benefit is employee funded except for Basic & Optional Matches. Plan information is available at www.concordiaplans.org .

Concordia Disability & Survivor Plan (CDSP)	Regular Full-Time	Special Full-Time	Part-Time & Temporary
	YES	YES	NO
CDSP provides disability income benefits (for employees) and lump-sum death benefits (for employees and enrolled dependents). Completion of a one-time enrollment form and beneficiary form is required. Immanuel Lutheran Church pays the cost for each employee's Concordia Disability and Survivor Plan. Plan information is available at www.concordiaplans.org .

Concordia Accident Insurance Program (AIP)	Regular Full-Time	Special Full-Time	Part-Time & Temporary
	YES	YES	NO
AIP is an employee funded, voluntary, optional group insurance available to employees participating in at least one other Concordia Plan. It is designed to help employees meet their financial obligations in the event of an accidental death or disabling injury. Completion of a one-time enrollment form is required. Each employee is responsible for paying the cost of this voluntary and optional coverage. Plan information is available at www.concordiaplans.org .

Health / Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account (FSA)	Regular Full-Time	Special Full-Time	Part-Time & Temporary
	YES	NO	NO
An FSA is a tax-advantaged account which allows an employee to set aside pre-tax dollars to use toward qualified health or dependent care expenses. Completion of an annual enrollment form is required. These accounts are employee funded. Plan information is available at www.flexdirect.adp.com .

The provisions established by the administrators and/or providers of each of these benefit plans supersede any information provided in this manual.

All employee and dependent plan coverage through the Concordia Plans will discontinue effective on the last day of the calendar month in which termination of full-time or part-time employment occurs. Benefit plan coverage will also be changed or discontinued in accordance with a change in an employee's Employment Classification. Information about extension of coverage on an individual basis can be obtained from each of the Concordia Benefit Plans' office if available.

4.10 WORKERS COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Immanuel maintains Workers Compensation coverage in compliance with applicable law. All work-related injuries/illnesses should be reported to the Human Resources Coordinator, Senior Pastor or Principal within forty-eight (48) hours of the incident or as soon as possible.

4.11 UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION, FEDERAL AND STATE

Immanuel is exempt from, and does not contribute to, State or Federal unemployment tax programs. Therefore, employees, whether voluntarily or involuntarily separated from employment at Immanuel, are not eligible for either State or Federal unemployment benefits or claims.

4.12 CONTINUING EDUCATION ASSISTANCE & PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Where it can be demonstrated that Immanuel will benefit from an employee's participation in a job-related program or professional organization, the related expenses may be reimbursed by the Board of Directors. Requests for reimbursement of authorized expenses related to the educational program or professional organization must be approved in writing in advance by the Senior Pastor or Principal or by the Board of Directors when the requests for reimbursement are from the Senior Pastor or the Principal.

4.12.1 PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

In an effort to maintain high standards at Immanuel, the following program has been established to encourage the professional growth of all professional staff members as well as to maintain school accreditation requirements and State of Illinois requirements for teacher certification. Professional staff members at Immanuel include teachers, Principal, Pastors and other staff as defined by the job description.

All professional school staff including teachers and the principal must complete the professional growth requirements needed to maintain any professional certification required according to his/her job description and the Illinois State Board of Education.

All professional church staff must earn a minimum of four (4) quarter hours or three (3) semester hours of credit from an accredited institution of higher learning every three (3) calendar years. Participation in educational workshops or seminars, or the teaching or conducting of such workshops or seminars, totaling four (4) Continuing Education Units (CEUs) may be substituted for one-half (1/2) of this professional- growth credit during the three (3)-year period. Eligible professional staff serving part-time must acquire a minimum of two (2) quarter hours every three (3) calendar years.

The total registration and tuition cost for the professional growth requirement will be paid by Immanuel based on the availability of specific budget funds. Approved and funded courses will be reimbursed upon successful completion of the course. Successful completion is defined as earning a "B" or higher. Courses, workshops and seminars must be approved by one of the Senior Pastor or Principal and also by the Chair of the Board of Elders or by the Chair of the Board of the Christian School. All requests must be submitted to the Human Resources Coordinator on a Professional Growth Form. Immanuel will strive to maintain adequate funds in the budget to honor approved requests of the professional staff.

4.12.2 TUITION AND FEE ASSISTANCE

Christian Day School tuition and fee assistance is available to ILCS employees as follows:

1. Eligibility. The following workers are eligible to have the Early Childhood and Christian Day School tuition for their children waived:
 - All Regular Full-Time, Special Full-Time and Part-Time school faculty members.
 - All Regular Full-Time and Special Full-Time church ministry leaders.
 - Other church workers may be considered for Early Childhood and Christian Day School tuition and fee assistance at the recommendation of the Senior Pastor and with the approval of the Board of Directors.
 - Other school workers may be considered for Early Childhood and Christian Day School tuition and fee assistance at the recommendation of the School Principal and with the approval of the Board of Christian School.

2. General Provisions. The following general provisions apply to Early Childhood and Christian Day School tuition and fee assistance:
 - Eligible workers scheduled to work an annual average of less than 40-hours per work week according to their job description, will have the tuition for their children waived on a prorated basis according to their annual average work week hours. Application for additional financial assistance to cover this difference is permissible.
 - Eligible workers are responsible for paying school registration fees, late fees, and all other school fees accessed outside the tuition schedule. Application for additional financial assistance to cover these fees is permissible.

Extended School Supervision (ESS) and Discovery Camp program fee assistance is available to ILCS employees as follows:

1. Eligibility. All Regular Full-Time, Special Full-Time and Part-Time workers are eligible to have the ESS and Discovery Camp program fees for their children waived during their scheduled work hours and for any additional work related time approved by their supervisor.

Temporary employees working in the ESS and/or Discovery Camp departments are eligible to have the ESS and Discovery Camp program fees for their children waived during their scheduled work hours and for any additional work related time approved by their supervisor.

2. General Provisions. All eligible workers are responsible for paying registration fees, late fees, and all other fees associated with the ESS and Discovery Camp programs (i.e. special activity and field trip fees). Application for additional financial assistance to cover these expenses is permissible. See Group Employee Benefits for information on Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account benefits.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

5. PERSONNEL STATUS

5.1 TARDINESS AND ABSENCE

5.1.1 INTRODUCTION

It is important that employees are present at the start of their day to promptly begin work. Other employees and congregation members of Immanuel rely on workers being at their assigned tasks at scheduled times so that the work of ministry can be carried out smoothly.

5.1.2 WORK WEEK

The work week for each employee of ILCS is defined in the employee's job description.

5.1.3 ABSENCES

Employees should contact their supervisor as soon as it is determined that they will be unable to report to work as scheduled. In the case of an absence due to illness, calling the supervisor at home the night before or prior to the scheduled start of the workday allows adequate time to arrange a replacement.

5.1.4 TARDINESS

Tardiness or absence is considered "excused" only when the employee calls ahead of time and the tardiness or absence is for a compelling reason. If contact or a call cannot be made ahead of time due to physical limitations, earliest contact is required. Immanuel shall determine what constitutes a compelling reason for an absence or tardiness. Tardiness or absence for a non-compelling reason, and failing to call the supervisor according to Immanuel policy, will be considered "unexcused."

A consistent pattern of absence or tardiness, whether excused or unexcused, may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

An employee who fails to call in or report to work for three (3) consecutive days may be considered to have abandoned his/her job and may be terminated. (See Job Abandonment, paragraph 5.2.1)

5.2 TERMINATION

The employment relationship between Immanuel and its employees is of an at-will nature. This means that, unless this relationship is modified by a written employment agreement signed by the President of the Board of Directors, the Senior Pastor and the employee, the employee is hired for an indefinite period of time. Thus, the employee is free to leave at any time when he or she believes it is in his/her best interest. Similarly, Immanuel may terminate the employment relationship whenever it deems appropriate.

5.2.1 JOB ABANDONMENT

Employees who fail to call in or report to work for three (3) consecutive days may be considered to have abandoned their job and may be terminated. For school staff, the Vice President of Human Resources, the Board of Directors and the Board of Christian School are to be notified of any such cases. If the job abandonment involves church staff, the Vice President of Human Resources, the Board of Directors and the Board of Elders are to be notified of any such cases. No action is to be taken until the situation has been reviewed and approved by the appropriate governing boards.

5.2.2 VOLUNTARY RESIGNATION

When an employee initiates a separation from Immanuel, it is considered a “voluntary resignation.” A two (2)-week notice submitted in writing to the employee’s supervisor notifying him/her of the employee’s intent to resign is desired. Once notice is given of an employee’s intent to resign, and if continued employment is not desired by Immanuel, the employee may be terminated earlier and paid throughout the requested date of termination (up to a maximum of two (2) weeks). Written notice should include the reason for leaving, the last day of work, and an address where the employee can be reached in the future; it should be signed and dated by the employee.

Called workers who accept a Call into another ministry not at Immanuel should request and be granted a peaceful release from Immanuel, and if necessary, a transfer to the district where the calling entity is located.

5.2.3 INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION

Any employee may be involuntarily terminated when the supervising board determines that continued employment will not be to the benefit of the employee or Immanuel. Since the employment relationship between employees and Immanuel is of an at-will nature, unless this relationship is modified by a written employment agreement signed by the President of the Board of Directors, the Senior Pastor and the employee, an employee can be dismissed without notice. An employee may also be dismissed by following the procedures under disciplinary action or when the number of personnel exceeds that which is required for the ministries at Immanuel.

5.2.4 REDUCTION IN FORCE (RIF)

When conditions dictate that Immanuel must reduce staff, Immanuel, in its sole discretion, will determine which employees shall no longer be employed. Reduction-In- Force (RIF) will be communicated to affected employee(s) at the earliest reasonable time to allow for a productive transition.

5.2.5 EXIT INTERVIEW

A voluntary exit interview with the employee conducted by a member of the appropriate Immanuel board or committee may be held shortly after resignation or termination. This opportunity will be used to clarify, if necessary, the circumstances for leaving. Also, the employee’s supervisor, together with the Human Resources Coordinator, will review with the employee any accrued benefits to be paid, final pay details, check out procedures, return of keys and security badge, and return of any other Immanuel property in the employee’s possession.

5.3 TIME RECORDS: SCANNING IN AND OUT FOR HOURLY EMPLOYEES

Non-exempt, hourly employees are required to use Immanuel’s time clock located in the school office, or computer based labor management system to record their hours each workday. Employees should contact the HR Coordinator as soon as possible if there are issues with the time clock. Employee time records are used to determine payment to employees for services performed; non-exempt, hourly employees should:

January 1, 2024-PENDING

CLOCK/SCAN IN when starting to work at the beginning of the day; CLOCK/SCAN OUT when stopping work for any unpaid meal or break period; CLOCK/SCAN IN when returning to work after any unpaid meal or break period; CLOCK/SCAN OUT when stopping work at the end of the day.

An employee should not clock / scan in until they are ready to begin work. Employees should not scan, input, mark or sign the time record of another employee or knowingly allow someone else to scan, input, mark or sign their time record.

Employees may not clock/scan in or begin work early or clock/scan out of work late unless the immediate supervisor has approved this extra time for purposes of pay.

Any change or correction made in or on a time record should be approved by both the employee and his/her supervisor.

Exempt employees must also keep an accurate record of their hours worked.

Violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

5.4 BREAKS AND MEAL PERIODS

Non-exempt, hourly employees who work at least four (4) consecutive hours in a day are authorized to take one (1) paid break of fifteen (15) minutes. The break should be taken as close to the middle of the work period as possible. Non-exempt, hourly employees may voluntarily waive their right to a break period.

Non-exempt, hourly employees who work at least five (5) hours a day will receive an unpaid meal period of forty (40) minutes. Non-exempt, hourly employees who do not work more than six (6) hours a day may voluntarily waive their right to a meal period.

Non-exempt, hourly employees who work seven (7) consecutive hours in a day will receive a paid lunch period of forty (40) minutes.

All breaks and meal periods will be scheduled in consultation with the employee's supervisor.

5.5 PERSONNEL RECORDS

The congregation needs to have complete and accurate information on each of its workers. This includes all full-time, part-time, and temporary; exempt and non-exempt; Called, contracted, and non-called workers.

Personnel may review their records upon request. The contents of personnel records are maintained in the office of the Human Resources Coordinator; these records are confidential and access to them is limited to those directly involved in the supervision and/or retention of the individual employee. If any employee wishes to inspect eligible personnel documents, she/he must first submit a request in writing to the Human Resources Coordinator. The request will normally be answered within twenty-one (21) days. The employee is not permitted to remove any part of such personnel records from the Human Resources Office. If the employee wishes copies of such records they will be made available.

It is important that Immanuel always have current information about its employees. Employees should immediately notify Immanuel of changes in name, address, phone number, marital status or beneficiary information, etc. If for some reason there is a need to change a name and/or Social Security number, original documentation authorizing the change should be reviewed.

5.6 PROMOTION AND TRANSFER

Immanuel's intent is to give qualified employees preference over others when filling job openings within Immanuel. Openings should be announced to existing staff and sufficient time should be allowed for existing staff to respond prior to advertising the opening to the church or school-at-large or the general public. However, because of the experience, skills and educational requirements of many jobs, promotions from within Immanuel are not always possible.

An employee's past performance, experience, qualifications and potential are factors that will be considered in making promotion and transfer decisions. The individual's personnel records shall be the official source of information.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

6. COMPENSATION

6.1 PAYDAY

Checks may be distributed during the workday or electronically transferred on the fifteenth (15th) and last workday of the month.

Non-exempt, hourly employees are responsible for completing their electronic timecards or hand scans. The employee's supervisor will approve hours worked.

6.1.1 ADVANCES

Salary advances will not be routinely permitted. Salary advances will be considered on a case-by-case basis and will be permitted only with the approval of the Senior Pastor and the Vice President of Finance.

6.1.2 TERMINATION PAYCHECKS

Termination checks shall be released upon the return of all building keys and other Immanuel property which may have been entrusted to the care of the employee.

6.2 SALARY INCREASES

Salary budget increases are not promised, and any increase must be approved by the Voters Assembly as part of the annual budget or the Board of Directors upon recommendation of the appropriate Board.

A written review must typically be completed for the twelve (12) month period prior to a salary increase.

6.3 PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

Employees who are not Ministers of the Gospel must have various deductions taken from their pay for tax purposes. These deductions include Federal and State Income taxes and Social Security and Medicare taxes. The Internal Revenue Service and each State Department of Revenue publish withholding tables annually based on personal earnings and the number of exemptions claimed by each worker to satisfy income tax withholding requirements. The worker, by use of the W-4 Form, states the number of exemptions claimed and any additional dollars wished withheld beyond the amount indicated in the tax withholding tables. The amounts withheld for Social Security and Medicare taxes are at a fixed percentage of earnings or a specific amount requested.

6.3.1 GARNISHMENT

If any employee does not pay her/his debts, through legal means a creditor can order Immanuel Lutheran Church and School to withhold a certain amount from his/her paycheck (a "garnishment"). While Immanuel Lutheran Church and School has no desire to be involved in the employee's personal financial affairs, it must obey the order of a court. Upon the receipt of a garnishment, the Coordinator of Human Resources will notify the employee.

6.3.2 OTHER PAYROLL DEDUCTIONS

Other payroll deductions that may be offered by Immanuel are strictly voluntary and must be requested in writing by the employee. By offering these deductions, Immanuel provides their employees with the opportunity to save dollars for their future and possibly to experience current tax savings not permitted through non-payroll deducted savings plans.

6.4 HOUSING ALLOWANCE

Pastors, certified teachers, Directors of Christian Education, Directors of Christian Outreach, deaconesses, parish assistants, certified lay ministers, Directors of Parish Music and Directors of Family Life ministry who are listed on the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod's rosters and are in ministry are eligible to be compensated with a housing allowance. The designation of the housing allowance must be pursuant to official action taken in advance of payment of the allowance. The designation cannot be made retroactively. On an annual basis, the Human Resources Coordinator will request a housing allowance designation form be completed by each eligible worker. These annual designations will be presented to the Board of Directors for approval. The Board's official action will be recorded in their meeting minutes. A worker's housing allowance designation may be amended as necessary, but each amendment must be formally approved by the Board of Directors and can only be effective for compensation made after the approval.

6.5 OVERTIME

Overtime compensation will be paid to non-exempt, hourly employees for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a seven (7)-day workweek. The overtime rate of pay is one and one-half (1.5) times the regular hourly rate of pay. Overtime is to be worked only when specifically authorized by the Senior Pastor or the Principal. Overtime pay will not be routinely authorized.

Exempt employees (salaried employees) may work overtime hours, but are ineligible for overtime pay.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

7. DISCIPLINE AND GRIEVANCE

7.1 DISCIPLINE AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Immanuel's discipline and grievance procedures are the framework for addressing difficulties which may arise as part of the working relationship from either the employee's or employer's perspective. They are necessary to ensure that everyone is treated in the same way in similar circumstances and to ensure issues are dealt with fairly and reasonably.

7.1.1 DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

If an employee fails to follow Immanuel's policies regarding job performance and conduct, the employee may be subject to disciplinary action, including termination of employment. For other than major infractions, which can result in immediate termination, an employee will normally first be verbally counseled about the problem by his/her supervisor with the intent of clearing up any misunderstanding and establishing what behavior is expected in the future. Whenever possible, disciplinary action, including verbal counsel, may be documented in writing by the supervisor noting the type of disciplinary action taken, the date of the incident and the subject matter addressed. This documentation will be kept in the employee's confidential personnel file in the Human Resources Coordinator's office. Violation of policies can result in ineligibility for salary increases, probation, suspension or termination of employment.

If an employee's performance has reached an unsatisfactory level, the following steps are typically followed; however, Immanuel reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to determine what level of discipline may be appropriate, including combining or skipping any of the steps outlined below. At all times, the relationship between Immanuel and its employees is employment-at-will.

Actions will be taken by the Senior Pastor for the church staff, by the Principal for the school staff, by the Senior Pastor and the Board of the Christian School in the case of the Principal, and by the Board of Elders in the case of the Senior Pastor. The Vice President of Human Resources should be consulted before any action is initiated, and in all cases involving moral or religious issues, the Senior Pastor and the Board of Elders will be involved.

- A. The first action is a verbal warning. The employee should also be told that if his/her performance does not improve within a reasonable mutually agreed upon time frame a written warning may follow. A written record should be made of the date and content of the discussion and placed in the personnel file by the Senior Pastor or the Principal, with a copy given to the employee. In the discussion, and stated in the written record, should be a clear definition of the action needed to be taken by the employee to improve his/her performance; a specified time frame for improvements should also be included.
- B. The second action is a written warning if the employee's performance has not improved. The written warning typically include::

1. The area of performance needing improvement;
 2. A time frame during which the performance problem must be corrected and the employee must show sustained performance during and beyond the specified time frame.
 3. Consequences if performance does not improve;
 4. A time for follow-up review throughout the warning period, such as every two (2) weeks or monthly.
- C. If performance has not improved by the end of the warning period, termination procedures may be implemented. Termination typically require the involvement of the Vice President of Human Resources, the appropriate governing board and the Board of Directors. For release or removal of a called worker, see the provisions outlined in the Congregation Constitution and Bylaws.
- D. In the case of flagrant violation of civil law or gross moral misconduct by a staff person, he or she may be immediately suspended with pay by the supervisor or appropriate Board, and termination proceedings may be instituted, in consultation with the Senior Pastor and the Vice-President of Human Resources. For release or removal of a called worker, see the provisions outlined in the Congregation Constitution and Bylaws.

7.1.2 EXCEPTIONS

It is important to note that the severity of the offense may warrant not following a sequence of reminder-warning-reprimand-penalty, and that the disciplinary action taken may begin at any level. A reprimand, for example, could be given for a serious first offense, and the employee's immediate dismissal could result without prior warning or suspension in the case of significant acts of misconduct or serious dereliction of duty as determined by Immanuel in its sole discretion.

7.1.3 NON-RENEWAL OF CONTRACT

Immanuel may choose not to renew an employee's contract or to terminate an employee's contract in accordance with its terms for any reason in its sole discretion, including fiscal changes or changes in staffing needs.

7.2 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Immanuel recognizes that occasionally employees may become dissatisfied with its practices, policies or other work situations. Immanuel encourages the quick and reasonable resolution of any such situations, difficulties or complaints. When conflict relative to terms and conditions of employment arises, the following steps are suggested guidelines for an employee to follow to ensure that situations, difficulties and complaints are handled in an effective, efficient and God-pleasing manner. The goal of these steps is always to restore relationships following the Lord's direction as found in Matthew 18:15-20.

1. The employee shall meet with his/her supervisor to inform the supervisor of the problem and request a resolution. A full discussion and understanding of the matter by both the employee and supervisor is essential at this step. The matter should be put in writing by the supervisor at this time with a copy given to the employee and a copy placed in the employee's personnel file in the Human Resources Coordinator's office. The supervisor, in conjunction with Immanuel's Vice-President of Human Resources, will be responsible for solving the problem. The supervisor will keep the employee informed of his/her decision in a timely manner.

January 1, 2024-PENDING

2. Should the employee feel that a satisfactory resolution has not been achieved between the employee and the immediate supervisor, or if an employee wishes to bypass a discussion with the immediate supervisor, the employee should then discuss the matter with the Human Resources Coordinator, appropriate board chairperson, or Vice-President of Human Resources.
3. If the grievance is still not resolved, the employee will send the grievance in written form to the Congregation President of Immanuel Lutheran Church, who will convene a meeting with the employee, the employee's supervisor, and the appropriate board chairperson and the Vice President of Human Resources to discuss the grievance. The Vice President of Human Resources will inform the employee of the decision of the governing board in a timely manner.
4. If the grievance is still not resolved, the next steps will be to review the complaint with the Board of Directors, and finally the Voters Assembly. The decision of the Voters Assembly is the final step in the procedure for non-called employees.

In all instances, Called employees are eligible to take full advantage of their rights in accordance with the Synod's Bylaws, including the Synodical Dispute Resolution.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

8. WORKING TOGETHER

8.1 INTRODUCTION

It is important at Immanuel that all employees work together as a team so that the rights and interests of both Immanuel and its employees are assured. Common sense, good judgment and acceptable personal behavior on the part of all employees will make Immanuel a desirable place to work.

8.2 CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

The command of Christ is that His mission for the Church should be carried out according to His will, and that in doing so, a Scriptural standard of decency and order in an employee's personal and professional life should be maintained. No practice or behavior inconsistent with or in conflict with individual moral and ethical conduct required by Scripture shall be tolerated from employees. Any failure to maintain these ethical and moral standards may be grounds for counseling and/or immediate dismissal from employment.

Employees who hold positions of responsibility or positions that put them and Immanuel in the public eye are often regarded as role models and exemplars of Christian leadership. These persons may be held to a stricter standard of behavior and practice than other employees in both their work and their personal lives. Counseling may be required and these employees may face dismissal for behavior and practices deemed by Immanuel to be inappropriate to fulfilling their function as role model and leader in carrying out Christ's mission on earth.

8.3 OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

Immanuel encourages outside volunteer involvement in community, non-profit, and charitable activities and organizations, as long as they do not cause conflicts of interest or create demands that interfere with an employee's work performance at Immanuel.

Additionally, outside employment is permissible as long as it does not interfere, compete or conflict with Immanuel's interests; does not hinder the employee's ability to meet the responsibilities and demands of his or her position at Immanuel; and is performed outside the employee's Immanuel work schedule and off Immanuel's premises.

8.3.1 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Immanuel Lutheran Church & School is fully committed to conducting its responsibilities in a manner reflecting the highest degree of integrity and honesty. The success of ILCS in conducting its affairs is the sum of the efforts of each employee executing his or her responsibilities with good judgment and in an ethical manner. In exercising these responsibilities each worker should strive to always:

1. Exercise honesty, objectivity and diligence in their performance duties and responsibilities.

2. Exhibit loyalty in all matters pertaining to the affairs of Immanuel Lutheran Church & School and not knowingly be a party to any illegal or improper activity.
3. Refrain from entering into any activity which may be in conflict with the interest of ILCS and its components or which could prejudice the ability of any ministry to objectively carry out its duties and responsibilities.
4. Avoid the use of information acquired in the course of carrying out one's duties for any personal gain or in any manner which knowingly would be detrimental to the welfare of ILCS.
5. Account for the use of all ILCS funds and assets in a full and accurate manner.
6. Avoid acceptance by the individual or any close relative (spouse, parents, children or in-laws) of any gifts of more than a nominal value, loans other than from established financial institutions, excessive entertainment or substantial favors from any individual or outside concern which does or is seeking to do business with ILCS.
7. Report to the Human Resources Coordinator ownership, either individually or by any close relative (spouse, parents, children or in-laws), of a substantial financial interest in any outside concern which does business with ILCS, except for securities listed on a national exchange. A substantial financial interest is presumed if the holding is either:
 - a. Five percent (5%) or more of the stock, assets, or other interests of a supplier, customer or competitor, or
 - b. Ten percent (10%) or more of the employee's net assets and the employee is in a position to affect ILCS's business decisions with respect to such entity.
8. Refrain from acting as an officer, director, partner, consultant, representative, agent, advisor or employee of a supplier, customer, partner or competitor of ILCS.

Any activity by an employee that may constitute a conflict of interest must be submitted for review to the VP of Human Resources via the Human Resources Coordinator. Any inappropriate activity shall be addressed according to the Disciplinary Procedures policy, paragraph 6.105.

All ILCS employees will annually sign a Conflict of Interest Questionnaire, paragraph 9.300 acknowledging that they understand and will abide by the Conflict of Interest Policy. Employees must promptly inform the VP of Human Resources via the Human Resources Coordinator should any future activity which may constitute a conflict of interest arise after the annual questionnaire has been signed.

8.4 WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

The Immanuel Lutheran Church and School Code of Conduct policy require employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. In doing so, all employees must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling their responsibilities and comply with the Code of Conduct, the policies established in this Manual and all applicable laws and regulations. It is also the responsibility of all employees to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy.

8.4.1 NO RETALIATION

No employee who in good faith reports a violation of the Code of Conduct, or any other law, regulation or policy established in this Manual shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within the organization prior to seeking resolution outside the organization.

8.4.2 REPORTING VIOLATIONS

The Grievance Procedures established in this Manual address the Immanuel's open door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, an employee's supervisor is in the best position to address an area of concern. However, if the employee is not comfortable speaking with his/her supervisor or is not satisfied with his/her supervisor's response, the employee is encouraged to speak with the Human Resources Coordinator, the Vice President of Human Resources or anyone on the Board of Directors whom the employee is comfortable in approaching. Supervisors are required to report suspected violations of the Code of Conduct or any other law, regulation or policy established in this Manual to the Senior Pastor, or the Vice President of Human Resources, who is responsible to report all such violations to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has specific responsibility to ensure that all reported violations are investigated in an independent and thorough manner. For suspected fraud, or when the employee is not uncomfortable with following Immanuel's open door policy, individuals should contact the Senior Pastor directly.

8.4.3 ACTING IN GOOD FAITH

Anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation of the Code of Conduct, or any other law, regulation or policy established in this Manual, must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

8.4.4 CONFIDENTIALITY

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

8.4.5 HANDLING OF REPORTED VIOLATIONS

All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken according to the discipline and grievance procedures established in Section 6 of this Manual. The Vice President of Finance of the Board of Directors shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing. The Title IX Coordinators shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding sexual harassment, sex discrimination, or sexual assault. (See Title IX Policy, paragraph 7.205)

8.5 ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION POLICY

8.5.1 COMPUTER AND COMMUNICATION SYSTEM USAGE

Our e-mail, computer, computer network, telephone, voice mail, video teleconferencing, and related electronic and communication equipment and systems (including but not limited to: computer hard drives; software; video conferencing software, computer networks; email, telephone and voice mail systems; telephone and other data transmission lines; cellular phones; etc.) (Referred to as “Computer and Communication Systems”) are to be used for work purposes. The use of Computer and Communications Systems must be in accordance with the following. In addition to the above, we prohibit you from:

- Using passwords, accessing files or retrieving stored information without proper authorization;
- Displaying or transmitting any communication that may be construed as harassment on the basis of race, sex, national origin, age, disability, religion, ancestry or other group protected by law. Such prohibited communications include, but are not limited to, sexually explicit images, messages, cartoons, ethnic slurs, racial epithets, inappropriate web sites and similar communications;
- Deleting, examining, copying or modifying data, files, e-mail and/or voice mail belonging to us or our employees or agents, without prior consent or authorization;
- Introducing computer viruses or other disruptive or destructive programs into our network or its other equipment and programs;
- Accessing any inappropriate web site, including but not limited to all sex-related, dating, hate crime, pornographic and other such inappropriate web sites;
- Using Computer and Communication Systems for non-business and non-work related matters without permission, or in any way that we view as inappropriate;
- Copying software for use on your personal computer;
- Providing copies of software to any unauthorized person;
- Installing software, or downloading any software from the Internet or other online service to any our computer workstations or servers without authorization; and
- Copying or using material in violation of copyright laws or making that material available to others for copying. Users are responsible for complying with copyright law and applicable licenses that apply to software, files, documents, messages, and other material they wish to download or copy.

The Computer and Communication Systems belong to us. Unless prior permission is given, the Computer and Communication Systems may only be used for business purposes. All such permitted usage, however, is still subject to all other prohibitions listed above and may still be subject to monitoring as described below.

8.5.2 MONITORING OF COMPUTER AND COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS

You have no expectation of privacy in anything you create, store, send, or receive on Computer and Communications Systems or your usage of those Systems.

This includes, but is not limited to, items such as:

- Computer files, such as documents, spreadsheets, reports, databases;
- Emails;
- Instant messages;
- Voice mails;
- Telephone calls;

- Video conferencing; and
- Cellular phone text messages

All information produced, received, stored on, or sent from our Computer and Communication Systems is considered a record of the organization and is our property. This includes emails sent using our Computer and Communication Systems, even if you are using a personal account, such as Gmail, , or other such email or instant message account or service. To ensure the proper use of Computer and Communication Systems (including e-mail, voice mail, text messages, instant messages, video conferencing and the like) We Reserve The Right To Monitor And Access Any Computer And Communication Systems At Any Time, With Or Without Any Notice, Other Than This Policy. Such access or monitoring may include the use of computer monitoring software.

8.5.3 CONSENT TO ACCESS AND MONITORING

By accepting or continuing employment, you consent to our access to and monitoring of: (1) Computer and Communications Systems; and (2) all information produced, received, stored on, or sent from our Computer and Communication Systems, including personal email accounts accessed using the organization's equipment and any emails transmitted through personal web-based accounts that are stored on our hard drives or other computer equipment as temporary, temporary internet, or other files.

8.5.4 OTHER MESSAGE RESTRICTIONS

Electronic communications may not contain sexual comments or images, racial or ethnic slurs, or other comments or images that would offend someone on the basis of race, gender, national origin, political beliefs or disability.

Employees may not upload, download or otherwise transmit copyrighted, trademarked or patented material, trade secrets or other confidential, private or proprietary information or materials in violation of any legal constraints. Employees may not upload, download or otherwise transmit any illegal information or materials.

Employees may not use Immanuel electronic communications systems to gain unauthorized access to remote computers or other systems or to damage, alter or disrupt such computers or systems in any way, nor may employees – without written authorization – use someone else’s code or password or disclose someone else’s code or password, including their own. Employees may not enable unauthorized third parties to have access to or use the electronic communications systems, nor may employees otherwise jeopardize the security of Immanuel electronic communications systems.

8.5.5 MESSAGE CREATION

Employees must use the utmost care in creating electronic communications. Even when a message has been deleted, it may still exist on a back-up system, be recreated, be printed out, or may have been forwarded to someone else without the creator’s knowledge. As with paper records, proper care should be taken in creating electronic records which may someday have to be produced in connection with legal and/or business needs.

8.5.6 RECORD RETENTION

As with paper documents created and received by an employee, it is each employee’s responsibility to ensure that those electronic messages that should be retained are in fact saved. All employee-related documents will be retained in perpetuity. Those messages that need not be retained should be deleted.

8.5.7 VIRUSES AND TAMPERING

Any files downloaded from the Internet and any computer disks received from non-Immanuel sources must be scanned by the Technology Staff with virus detection software before installation and execution. The intentional introduction of viruses, attempts to breach system security, or other malicious tampering with any of Immanuel's electronic systems are expressly prohibited. Employees must immediately report any tampering or other system breaches to their supervisor.

8.5.8 SELLING AND PURCHASING

The standard purchase and sales policies apply to all purchase and sales-related activities conducted via the electronic communications systems.

8.5.9 VIOLATIONS

Violations of this policy, including breaches of confidentiality or security, may result in suspension of some or all electronic communication privileges, disciplinary action and termination. Immanuel reserves the right to hold the employee personally liable for any violations of this policy.

8.6 PERSONAL APPEARANCE

An employee's appearance reflects not only on the employee as an individual, but on Immanuel as well. Immanuel expects employees to take pride in their appearance and strive to achieve a positive professional image when representing Immanuel.

8.7 LOST AND FOUND

Employees should not bring large sums of money, jewelry, or other valuables to work. Immanuel will not be responsible for personal property that is lost, damaged, stolen or destroyed.

If an employee finds items of value that have been lost by another person, the employee should turn the item(s) in to his/her supervisor who will try to locate its owner and store the item in a secure location until such time that the item may be returned to its rightful owner. Lost items other than jewelry or valuables will be placed in designated lost and found areas.

8.8 SMOKING

Immanuel is a smoke-free campus. Smoking is prohibited in the buildings and on the property and grounds of Immanuel. "E-cigarettes," "vapor cigarettes" and similar products will be treated as a tobacco product under this policy and are subject to the same restrictions.

8.9 ACCESS TO IMMANUEL PROPERTY

It is important that the Immanuel congregation have access at all times to Immanuel property, as well as other records, documents and files. As a result, the Senior Pastor, Principal and officers of Immanuel reserve the right, but always respecting that such information may be deemed to be of confidential nature (i.e., Pastor's confidential files, personnel files), to access employee offices, workstations, filing cabinets, desks, and any other Immanuel property in their discretion, with or without advance notice or consent.

8.10 USE OF IMMANUEL TELEPHONES

From time to time it may be necessary for employees to make and receive personal calls using Immanuel's telephones or personal cellular phones. However, these calls should be limited to no more than five (5) minutes in length, and should be made, whenever possible, during a scheduled break or meal period. Employees are expected to use good judgment and common sense when it comes to personal phone calls. Telephone bills will periodically be reviewed by the Vice President of Finance, Principal, Senior Pastor or Immanuel's bookkeeper for unauthorized and excessive use. Placing long distance calls or any other call for which Immanuel incurs an additional expense using Immanuel's telephones is strictly prohibited. Employees who violate this policy may be subject to disciplinary action.

8.11 EMPLOYEE PARKING

Employees park at their own risk. Immanuel will not be responsible for theft or damage to any vehicle parked on or near Immanuel property. Additionally, Immanuel will not be responsible for personal property left in vehicles that is lost, damaged, stolen or destroyed.

8.12 IMMANUEL BULLETIN BOARDS

Posted information on employee bulletin boards is for the benefit of all employees. Immanuel reserves the right to monitor and limit posted information on the bulletin boards. The Senior Pastor, Principal or their designated representative is responsible for this monitoring. Posters that explain State and Federal law, as well as updated information about Immanuel policy and procedures will be posted on the Immanuel employee bulletin board in the workroom. Employees are responsible for checking Immanuel's bulletin boards on a regular basis and for reading all posted materials.

8.13 REFERENCES

It is against the policy of Immanuel to provide letters of recommendation for any employee. A neutral reference providing date of employment and position title may be provided to a potential employer. Employees will follow Illinois State regulations for providing references.

8.14 CHILDREN IN THE WORKPLACE

Immanuel Lutheran Church and School strives to be a family-friendly environment and encourages children and their parents to participate in various worship, discipleship, school, and recreational and athletic family-oriented programs offered at Immanuel. In addition, all members of the Immanuel work community are encouraged to remain sensitive to the needs of working parents and supervisors should be flexible in granting accrued time off to employees who need to make emergency childcare arrangements.

As an employer, ILCS cannot permit employees to provide childcare in the workplace, office, or classroom during regular business hours. Workspace is not designed with the safety of children in mind. Employees and supervisors must consider issues of safety, confidentiality, disruption of operations and services, disruption to other employees, appropriateness, and the liability posed by children in the workplace.

The following guidelines are established to minimize potential liability, risk of harm and decreased productivity due to distractions and disruptions:

- While children may be brought to the workplace for brief visits or during the brief transition period (15-minutes) between the end of the Immanuel Lutheran School day and the end of an employee's workday, as a general rule, it is not appropriate to bring children to work as a substitute for making arrangements for regular childcare during regular business hours.

- Regular business hours are defined as the hours during which Extended School Supervision or Discovery Camp is available.
- Employees who are responsible for the care of minor children are expected to arrange childcare either through Immanuel's onsite Extended School Supervision/Discovery Camp program(s) or away from the work site. Employees may be eligible for tuition assistance and/or childcare flexible spending benefits to help cover these costs. See Group Employee Benefits, and Tuition Assistance, paragraph.
- These guidelines do not prohibit children and family members from being in the workplace during church-school sponsored events, camps, and programs intended for children and/or families or intended for community participation.
- This policy does not apply to minors aged fifteen (15) years and older working or volunteering at Immanuel. See Employment of Minors.
- These guidelines do not prohibit children enrolled and participating in Immanuel's Christian Day School and/or Extended School Supervision/Discovery Camp program(s) from being in authorized areas with proper staff supervision.
- Exceptions to these guidelines will be considered only in the case of a rare emergency or other exigent circumstance and only for a limited, short term situation. In these cases, the employee must receive advance, written permission from his or her supervisor. These exceptions will only be authorized if the supervisor is assured that arrangements for the safety and supervision of the child are satisfactory and if the supervisor is confident that distractions for the parent and for other employees are minimal.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

9. HEALTH AND SAFETY

9.1 SAFETY AND WORKPLACE INJURIES

Immanuel is committed to providing a safe environment for employees and visitors and will remain in compliance with the Occupational Health and Safety Administration (OSHA) guidelines at all times. In order to provide a safe workplace, access to ILCS facilities and work area may be limited to those with a legitimate business interest.

In accordance with OSHA standards, ILCS requires all employees to complete blood borne pathogens training on an annual basis. Information about this condition of employment is available from the Human Resources Coordinator or the Vice President of Human Resources.

9.1.1 REPORTING WORKPLACE INJURIES

Any workplace injury or illness, no matter how slight, should be reported to your supervisor or human resources as soon you realize you have suffered a work-related injury/illness, typically no later than the end of your scheduled workday in which the injury/illness occurs or you realize you have suffered a work related injury/illness. Failing or refusing to report a workplace injury or illness of which you are aware is a violation of this policy. The workplace injury or illness should be reported by completing a written statement including:

- Date and time of the injury/illness, and/or date and time you realized you suffered a work related injury/illness;
- Description of the injury/illness;
- Where the injury/illness took place;
- Any witnesses to the accident or injury; and
- The circumstances surrounding the injury/illness.

If you require medical treatment, you will be sent to an immediate care facility, or taken to an emergency room by ambulance as appropriate.

9.1.2 RIGHTS AND PROTECTIONS

- You have the right to report work-related injuries and illnesses (please follow the reporting procedure listed above); and
- Employers are prohibited from discharging or in any manner discriminating against employees for the reporting of work-related injuries or illnesses.

9.2 CELLULAR PHONE USAGE

For those employees who may drive while on company business, we expect those employees to refrain from using a cellular phone while driving. Safety must come before all other concerns.

In accordance with Illinois law, you may not operate a cell phone while driving, except under the following circumstances:

- Using a cell phone in hands free or voice-operated mode;
- Using a cell phone while parked on the shoulder of a roadway; or
- Using a cell phone when the vehicle is stopped due to normal traffic being obstructed and you have the motor vehicle transmission in neutral or park.

Whenever possible, even when using a cell phone in permitted hands free or voice-operated mode, pull off to the side of the road and safely stop the vehicle before placing or accepting a call. If acceptance of a call is unavoidable and pulling over is not an option, use hands free or voice activated mode, keep the call short, refrain from discussing complicated or emotional issues, and keep your eyes and attention on the road. Special care should be taken in situations where there is traffic, inclement weather or unfamiliar driving conditions. Under no circumstances should you place yourself or others at risk merely to conduct business.

Texting while driving is always prohibited by this policy and by state law. We expect you to follow all laws regulating the use of cell phones while driving.

9.3 ALCOHOL, DRUGS, AND CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

Immanuel believes that a quality working environment is free of alcohol and abuse of drugs and controlled substances. The use, sale, transfer, possession of alcohol, illegal drugs, or illegal controlled substances when on duty, on Immanuel property, or in Immanuel vehicles is strictly prohibited (exceptions include the sacrament of Holy Communion.) We also prohibit an employee from being impaired due to the use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or legal drugs, while on work Immanuel premises, and/or while on working time based on testing or observations. We will consider an employee impaired, or under the influence of alcohol or drugs if we, in our sole discretion, have a good faith belief that an employee exhibits specific, articulable symptoms of impairment while working that decrease the employee's performance, including factors such as, but not limited to: speech, including slurred speech; physical dexterity, agility, or coordination issues, including mobility limitations/unsteady gait, shakiness/hand tremors; demeanor, including unresponsiveness, inability to focus mentally, or engage in a conversation; appearance; irrational or unusual behavior; carelessness in operating equipment; disregard for the safety of the employee or others; involvement in any accident that results in serious damage to equipment or property; or carelessness that results in any injury to the employee or others. In addition, off-duty conduct that may adversely affect the reputation or interests of Immanuel is prohibited. Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

We will not penalize employees solely for their status as a registered qualifying patient under Illinois's or other states' medical marijuana laws, unless failing to do so would put us in violation of federal law or unless failing to do so would cause us to lose a monetary or licensing-related benefit under federal law or rules. No employee, however, may possess or use medical marijuana during work time or on our premises, including all vehicles, unless allowed by law. In all other respects, we expect employees to abide by this policy.

Certain use and possession of marijuana may be legal under Illinois law; however, marijuana is an illegal drug under federal law and we will continue to enforce our zero tolerance position as we maintain a drug free workplace. We will continue to prohibit the possession or use of marijuana on our premises, and/or while on work time, or while on-call. Our policy will also continue to prohibit employees from being impaired while on our premises, and/or while on work time, or while on call. Further, we will not allow marijuana usage where failing to do so would put us in violation of federal law, or if failing to do so would: impact our ability to comply with federal or State law; cause us to lose a federal or State contract or funding; or lose other monetary or licensing-related benefit under federal law or rules. We may test for marijuana usage as otherwise required by law or as may be allowed by law. . If an employee is disciplined for being under the influence or impaired by marijuana, the employee will receive a reasonable opportunity to contest the basis of the determination.

9.4 PROHIBITION OF VIOLENCE

It is the policy of Immanuel that there will be zero tolerance for violence. This includes joking and talking of violence. If violence in the workplace is displayed or threatened, the person responsible for such conduct will be subject to immediate disciplinary action. In addition to the appropriate disciplinary action, the employee and/or other parties involved may be subject to criminal proceedings as appropriate.

For the purpose of this policy, violence includes physically harming another, shoving, pushing, intimidation or coercion; however, Immanuel reserves the right to review incidents and expand on what may be considered violence. No weapons are allowed on Immanuel property and no threats or talk of violence will be tolerated.

All employees are to assist in preventing violence at Immanuel and should report incidents that could indicate a co-worker is in trouble to their supervisor, Senior Pastor, Principal or to the Board of Elders for incidents involving the Senior Pastor. All reports will be investigated by the employee's supervisor, Senior Pastor, Principal or by the Board of Elders for incidents involving the Senior Pastor. For any situation indicating immediate danger, an employee should call 911 for emergency assistance.

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL PERSONNEL POLICY MANUAL

10. EMPLOYEE EXPENSES & REIMBURSEMENTS

10.1 BUSINESS EXPENSE REPORTING

Employees may be reimbursed for any ordinary and necessary business and/or professional expense incurred on behalf of ILCS only if the following conditions are satisfied:

1. The expense is reasonable in amount and authorized prior to being incurred.
2. The employee documents the expense with the same documentary evidence as would be required to support a deduction of the expense on a federal income tax return. For each expense, the documentation must include the amount, date, place, business purpose, and business relationship (for entertainment expenses).
3. The employee provides the ILCS Bookkeeper with an accounting of such expenses in the form of an approved Expense/Purchase Requisition Form with the supporting documentary evidence attached in a timely manner. In no event will an expense be reimbursed if submitted more than sixty (60) days after the expense is paid or incurred by the employee.

10.2 TRAVEL AND USE OF PERSONAL AUTO FOR IMMANUEL BUSINESS

Employees not having an automobile allowance or a church-owned vehicle and who use their personal auto for Immanuel purposes will be reimbursed according to Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidelines. Claims for such expenses must be in writing and should state the nature of the Immanuel activity, city driven to and mileage. The Senior Pastor or Principal must approve all mileage expenses. The Vice President of Finance will approve mileage expenses for the Senior Pastor.

10.3 LODGING REIMBURSEMENT

Immanuel will reimburse staff for overnight lodging when road conditions are hazardous or when, due to schedule, there is inadequate time for proper rest and sleep. Reimbursement will be based upon the following conditions:

1. Reimbursement will be based upon an actual invoice submitted with a maximum limit of $100 per night or as location dictates.
2. In addition to the invoice, a written explanation must be provided as to the reason for this request.
3. The Senior Pastor will approve all requests for overnight lodging reimbursement.
4. The Vice President of Finance will approve all requests for overnight lodging made by the Senior Pastor.
5. The Senior Pastor may establish any additional guideline he believes is needed for the proper implementation of this policy.

10.4 CELLULAR TELEPHONE REIMBURSEMENT

Employees who need to use their personal cellular telephones for Immanuel purposes will be reimbursed according to guidelines as authorized by the Board of Directors. Claims for such expenses must be in writing with a copy of the cellular telephone bill, and should show the nature of the Immanuel business. Claims should be submitted within sixty (60) days of the due date of the cellular telephone bill. The Senior Pastor or Principal must approve all cellular telephone expenses as authorized by the Board of Directors. The Vice President of Finance will approve expenses for the Senior Pastor.

10.5 INTERVIEWING TRIPS

Persons brought to Immanuel for an employment interview will be reimbursed for transportation expenses. Automobile mileage will be reimbursed according to Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidelines. The use of public transportation, if more expensive than automobile mileage, must have the approval of the Board of Directors prior to travel. Reasonable expenses for lodging and meals will be reimbursed by the Board of Directors.

10.6 MOVING EXPENSES

All Regular Full-Time employees extended an offer of employment by Immanuel may be reimbursed for moving expenses at the time the position is accepted by the candidate. Such expenses must be approved by the Board of Directors in advance of any terms being presented to the candidate. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requirements for eligibility:

1. Immanuel must be at least fifty (50) miles farther from employee's former home than employee's previous job was from their former home. Move must occur within one (1) year of the first day of work at Immanuel.
2. Expenses (with original receipts) must be submitted within thirty (30) days of the employee's move. Only expenses that are considered reasonable and necessary will be reimbursed. The employee is expected to take actions to minimize the expenses to the extent reasonably possible. Original receipts, as required by the IRS, for all costs are required to be eligible for reimbursement. Immanuel maintains the unilateral right to deny reimbursement of any expense that it considers unreasonable or that could have been avoided by the candidate taking reasonable measures.
3. The maximum reimbursement allowed is $5,000. Only the following expenses, as defined by the IRS, will be eligible for reimbursement:
 - The cost of one (1) trip by the employee and spouse to find housing. Expenses covered include transportation as approved by the Board of Directors, housing and meals for a maximum of three (3) days. Return trips will not be covered, as they are not deductible per IRS regulations.
 - All transportation costs (other than the use of a professional moving company) should be by the shortest, most direct route available by conventional means. Side trips for sightseeing should be noted and excluded from reimbursable costs.
 - The cost of physically moving household furnishings and goods by common carrier or rental van. At least two (2) carriers are to submit estimated costs for such moves with final approval by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. Insurance will be provided by the carrier at full replacement value.
 - Mileage for transporting up to two (2) vehicles will be provided according to IRS guidelines. Mileage will be determined based on Rand McNally mileage charts, Google Maps, Waze or a similar app approved by the Board of Directors .
 - Additional reasonable expenses such as housing, meals and tolls while in transit, may be reimbursed by Immanuel as per agreement with the Board of Directors prior to travel.

January 1, 2024-PENDING

The payment of any amounts over and above what is allowed by this policy must be approved in advance by the Board of Directors. The excess payments may be required to be reported as taxable income to the recipient if required under IRS regulations.

11.2 EMPLOYEE STATEMENT OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Acknowledgement below must be signed by the employee and returned to the Human Resources Coordinator no later than one (1) week following receipt of the Personnel Policy Manual. The signed document will be placed in the employee’s personnel file by the Human Resources Coordinator.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This is to certify that I have received a copy of the Personnel Policy Manual of Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church - Palatine, Illinois (“Immanuel Lutheran Church and School”) and have read it or had it read to me carefully. I further understand all matters set forth in the Personnel Policy Manual and agree to abide by and adhere to Immanuel Lutheran Church and School policies during my employment with Immanuel Lutheran Church and School, as they may be modified from time to time. I further understand and agree that any provision of the Personnel Policy Manual may be amended, revised or eliminated at any time by Immanuel Lutheran Church and School with the approval of the Voters Assembly with or without notice.

I understand that my employment with Immanuel Lutheran Church and School is not for a specified length of time. Rather, I understand and agree that my employment is terminable at will so that both Immanuel Lutheran Church and School and I remain free to choose to end our work relationship at any time, with or without cause. I understand that my at-will employment status can only be modified by a written employment agreement signed by myself, the President of the Board of Directors, and the Senior Pastor. My at-will employment status cannot be modified by an oral or implied agreement. Likewise, I understand and acknowledge that nothing in the Personnel Policy Manual of Immanuel Lutheran Church and School in any way creates an express or implied contract of employment between Immanuel Lutheran Church and School on the one part, and me, on the other part.

I understand that it is my responsibility to maintain and keep my Personnel Policy Manual updated as new policies are created and distributed and/or policies are deleted or changed.

I further understand what my Employee Classification is __ and that I am eligible or ineligible for certain benefits according to my Employee Classification as indicated in the Personnel Policy Manual of Immanuel Lutheran Church and School.

11.3 CONFLICT OF INTEREST QUESTIONNAIRE

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Immanuel Lutheran Church & School is fully committed to conducting its responsibilities in a manner reflecting the highest degree of integrity and honesty. The success of ILCS in conducting its affairs is the sum of the efforts of each employee executing his or her responsibilities with good judgment and in an ethical manner. In exercising these responsibilities each worker should strive to always:

1. Exercise honesty, objectivity and diligence in their performance duties and responsibilities.
2. Exhibit loyalty in all matters pertaining to the affairs of Immanuel Lutheran Church & School and not knowingly be a party to any illegal or improper activity.
3. Refrain from entering into any activity which may be in conflict with the interest of ILCS and its components or which could prejudice the ability of any ministry to objectively carry out its duties and responsibilities.
4. Avoid the use of information acquired in the course of carrying out one's duties for any personal gain or in any manner which knowingly would be detrimental to the welfare of ILCS.
5. Account for the use of all ILCS funds and assets in a full and accurate manner.
6. Avoid acceptance by the individual or any close relative (spouse, parents, children or in-laws) of any gifts of more than a nominal value, loans other than from established financial institutions, excessive entertainment or substantial favors from any individual or outside concern which does or is seeking to do business with ILCS.
7. Report to the Human Resources Coordinator ownership, either individually or by any close relative (spouse, parents, children or in-laws), of a substantial financial interest in any outside concern which does business with ILCS, except for securities listed on a national exchange. A substantial financial interest is presumed if the holding is either:
 - A. Five percent (5%) or more of the stock, assets, or other interests of a supplier, customer or competitor, or
 - B. Ten percent (10%) or more of the employee's net assets and the employee is in a position to affect ILCS's business decisions with respect to such entity.
8. Refrain from acting as an officer, director, partner, consultant, representative, agent, advisor or employee of a supplier, customer, partner or competitor of ILCS.

Any activity by an employee that may constitute a conflict of interest must be submitted for review to the VP of Human Resources via the Human Resources Coordinator. Any inappropriate activity shall be addressed according to the Disciplinary Procedures policy, paragraph 7.1

All ILCS employees will sign an annual Conflict of Interest Questionnaire (below) acknowledging that they understand and will abide by the Conflict of Interest Policy 8.3. Employees must promptly inform the VP of Human Resources via the Human Resources Coordinator should any future activity which may constitute a conflict of interest arise after the annual questionnaire has been signed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST QUESTIONNAIRE

During the past twelve months, or since the time you last completed a questionnaire, have you or any member of your immediate family (spouse, parents, children, in-laws):
